

Figure 1

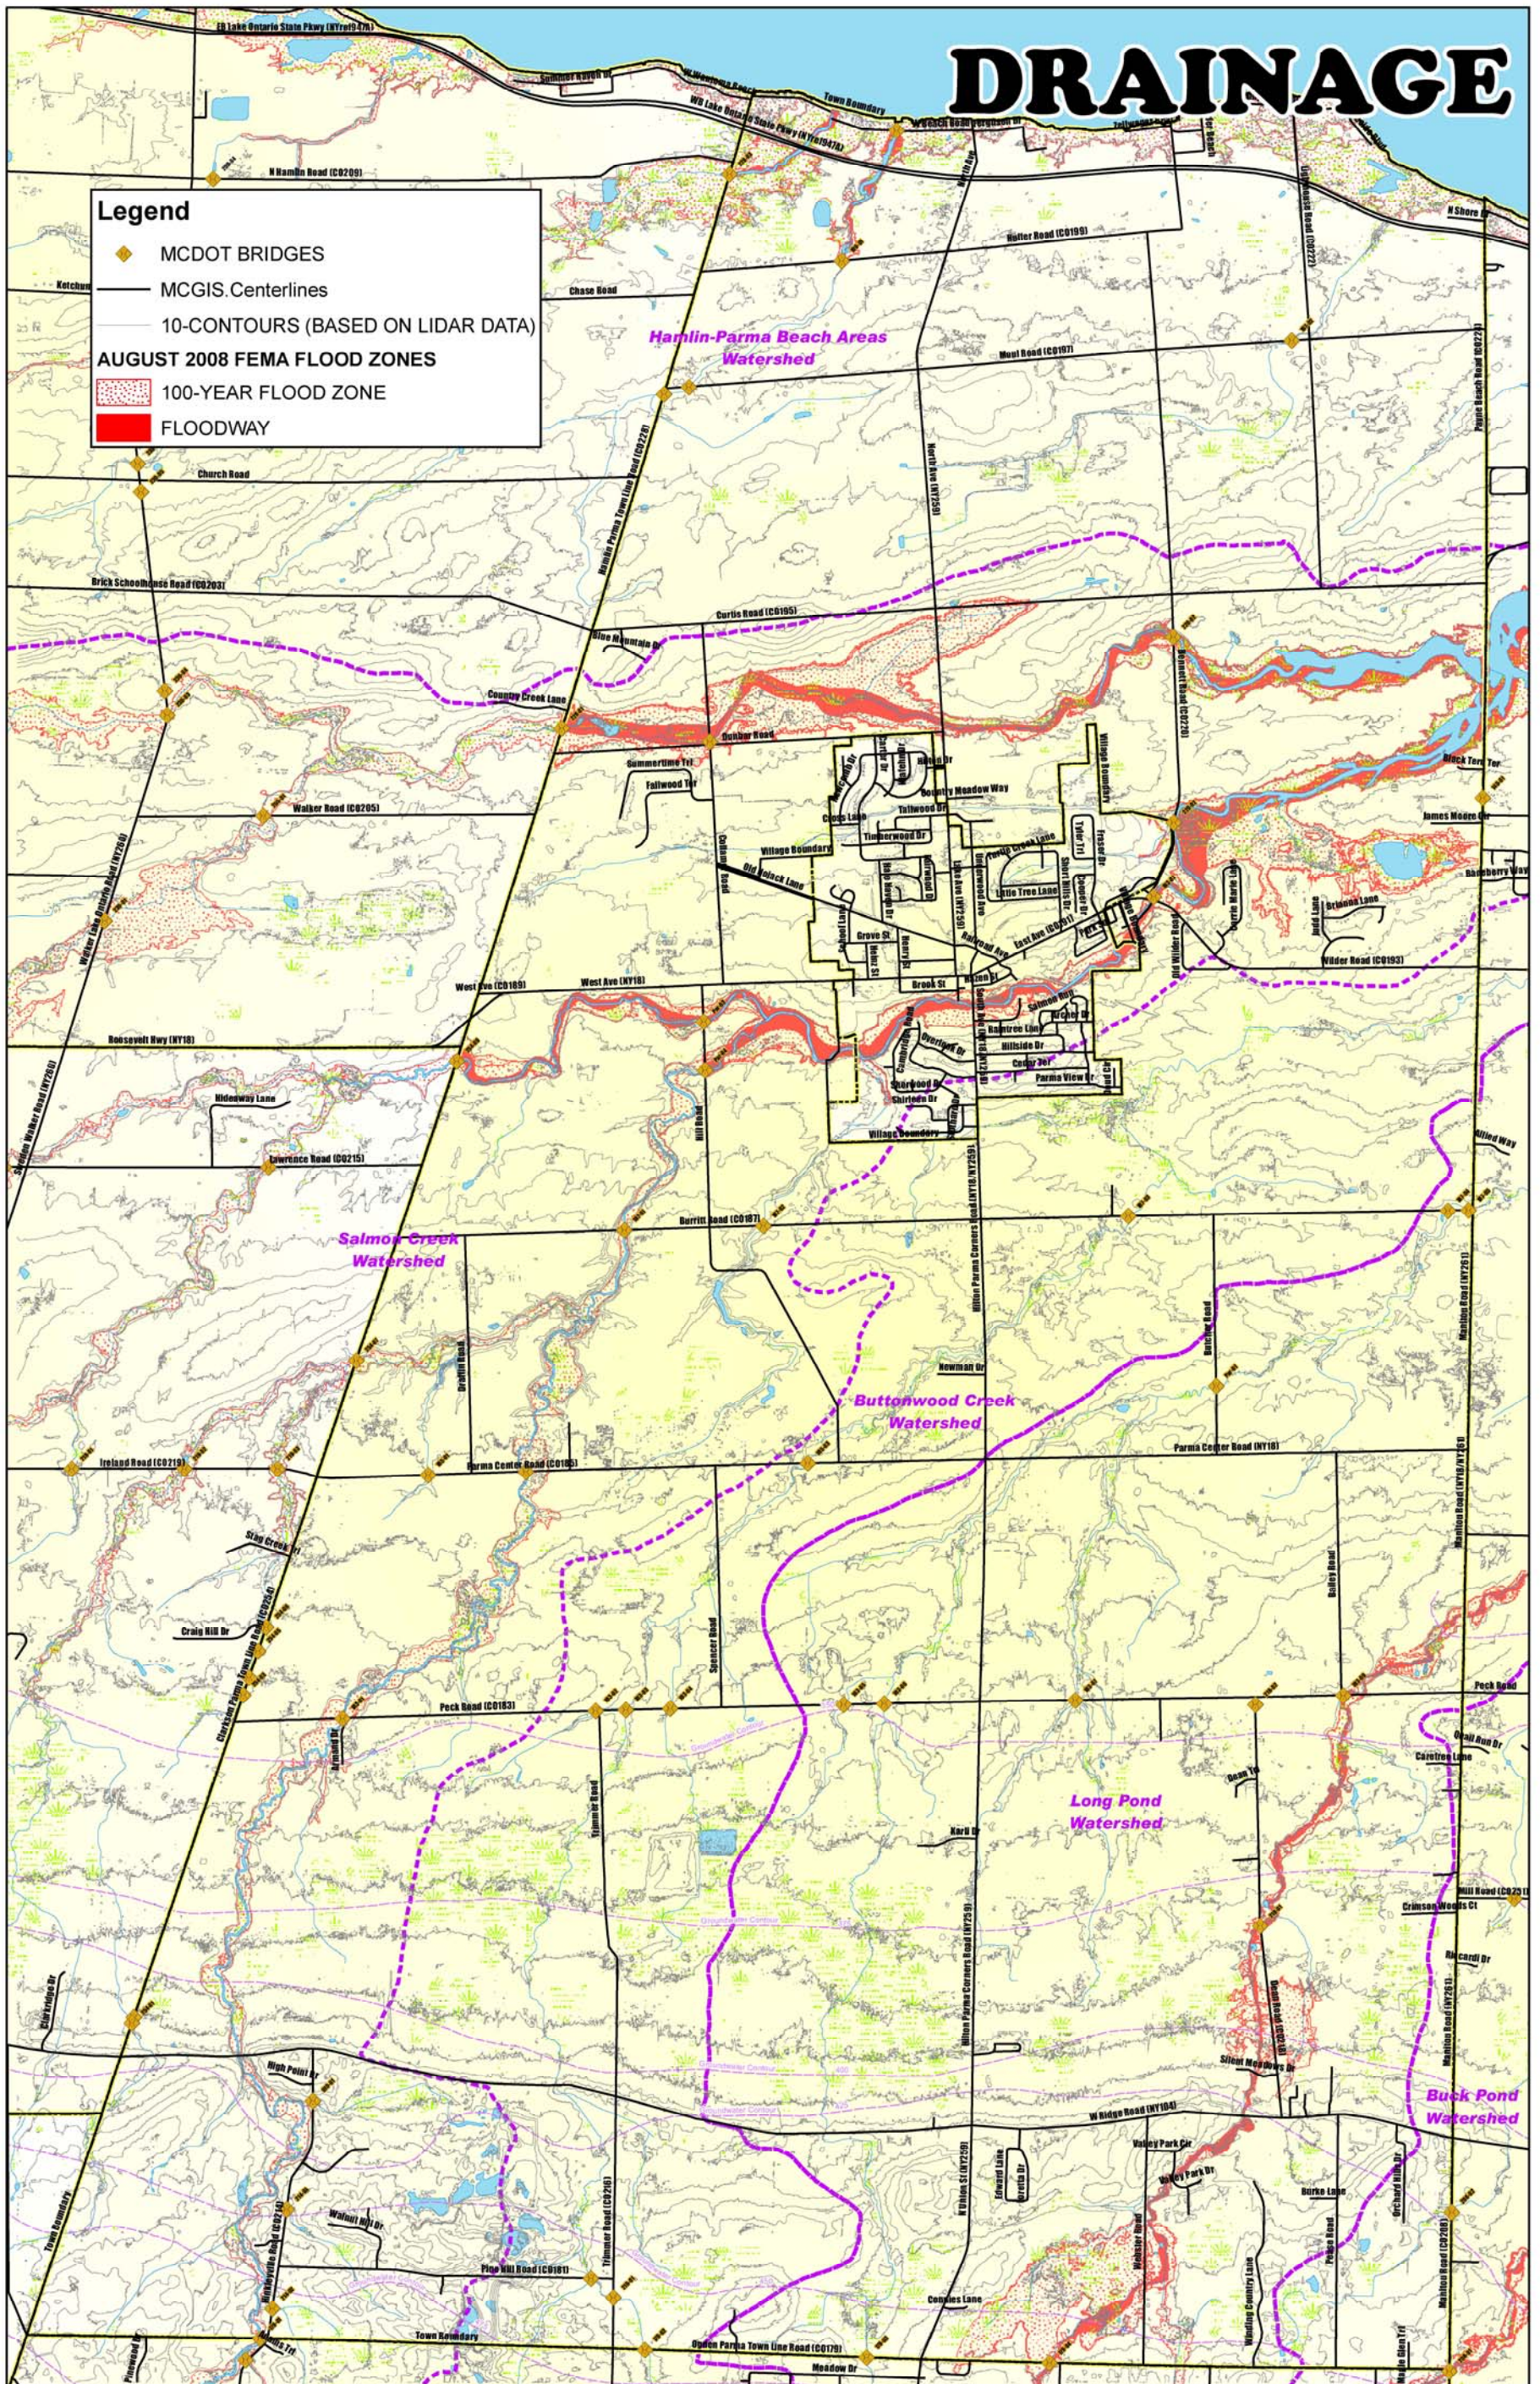

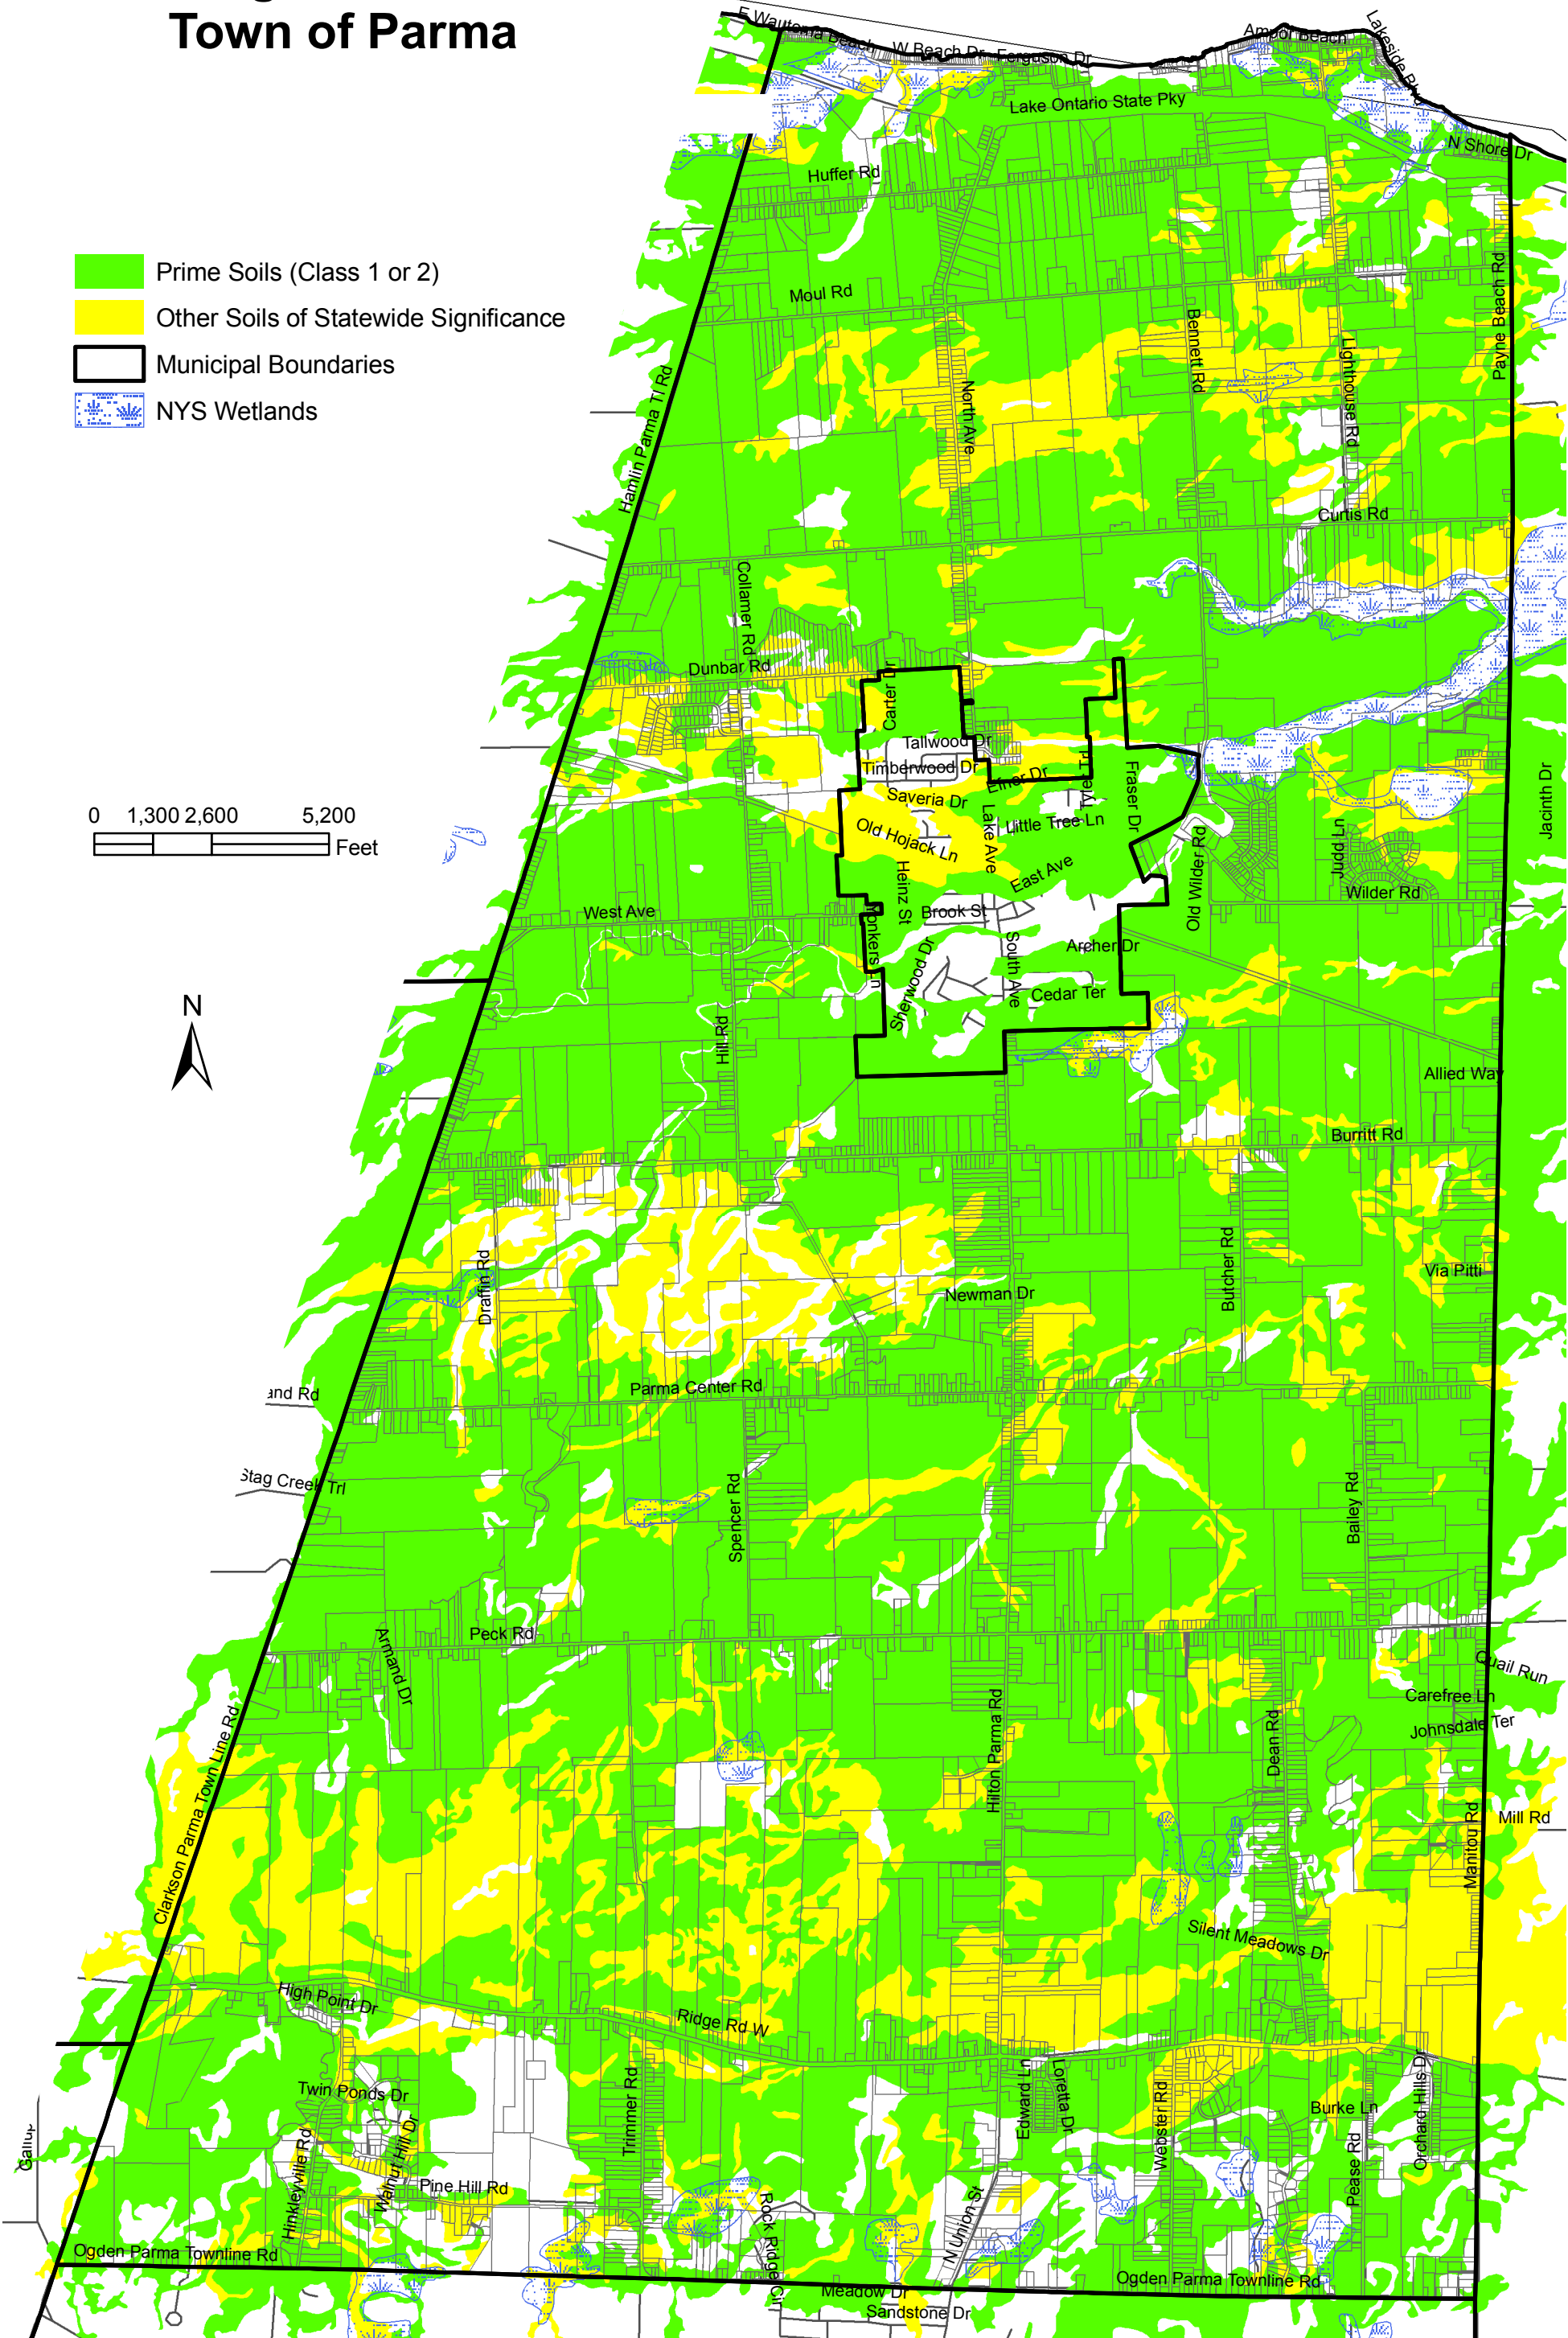

Figure 2

Prime Agricultural Soils Town of Parma

- Prime Soils (Class 1 or 2)
- Other Soils of Statewide Significance
- Municipal Boundaries
- NYS Wetlands

0 1,300 2,600 5,200 Feet

Town of Parma Agricultural & Farmland Protection Plan

Active Farmland

Active Farmland and Other Open Land

0.0 0.3 0.6 Miles

SOURCE: 2007 Tax Parcel boundaries provided by Monroe County.
2002 and 2005 aerial photographs from the NYS Geographic Information Systems Clearinghouse

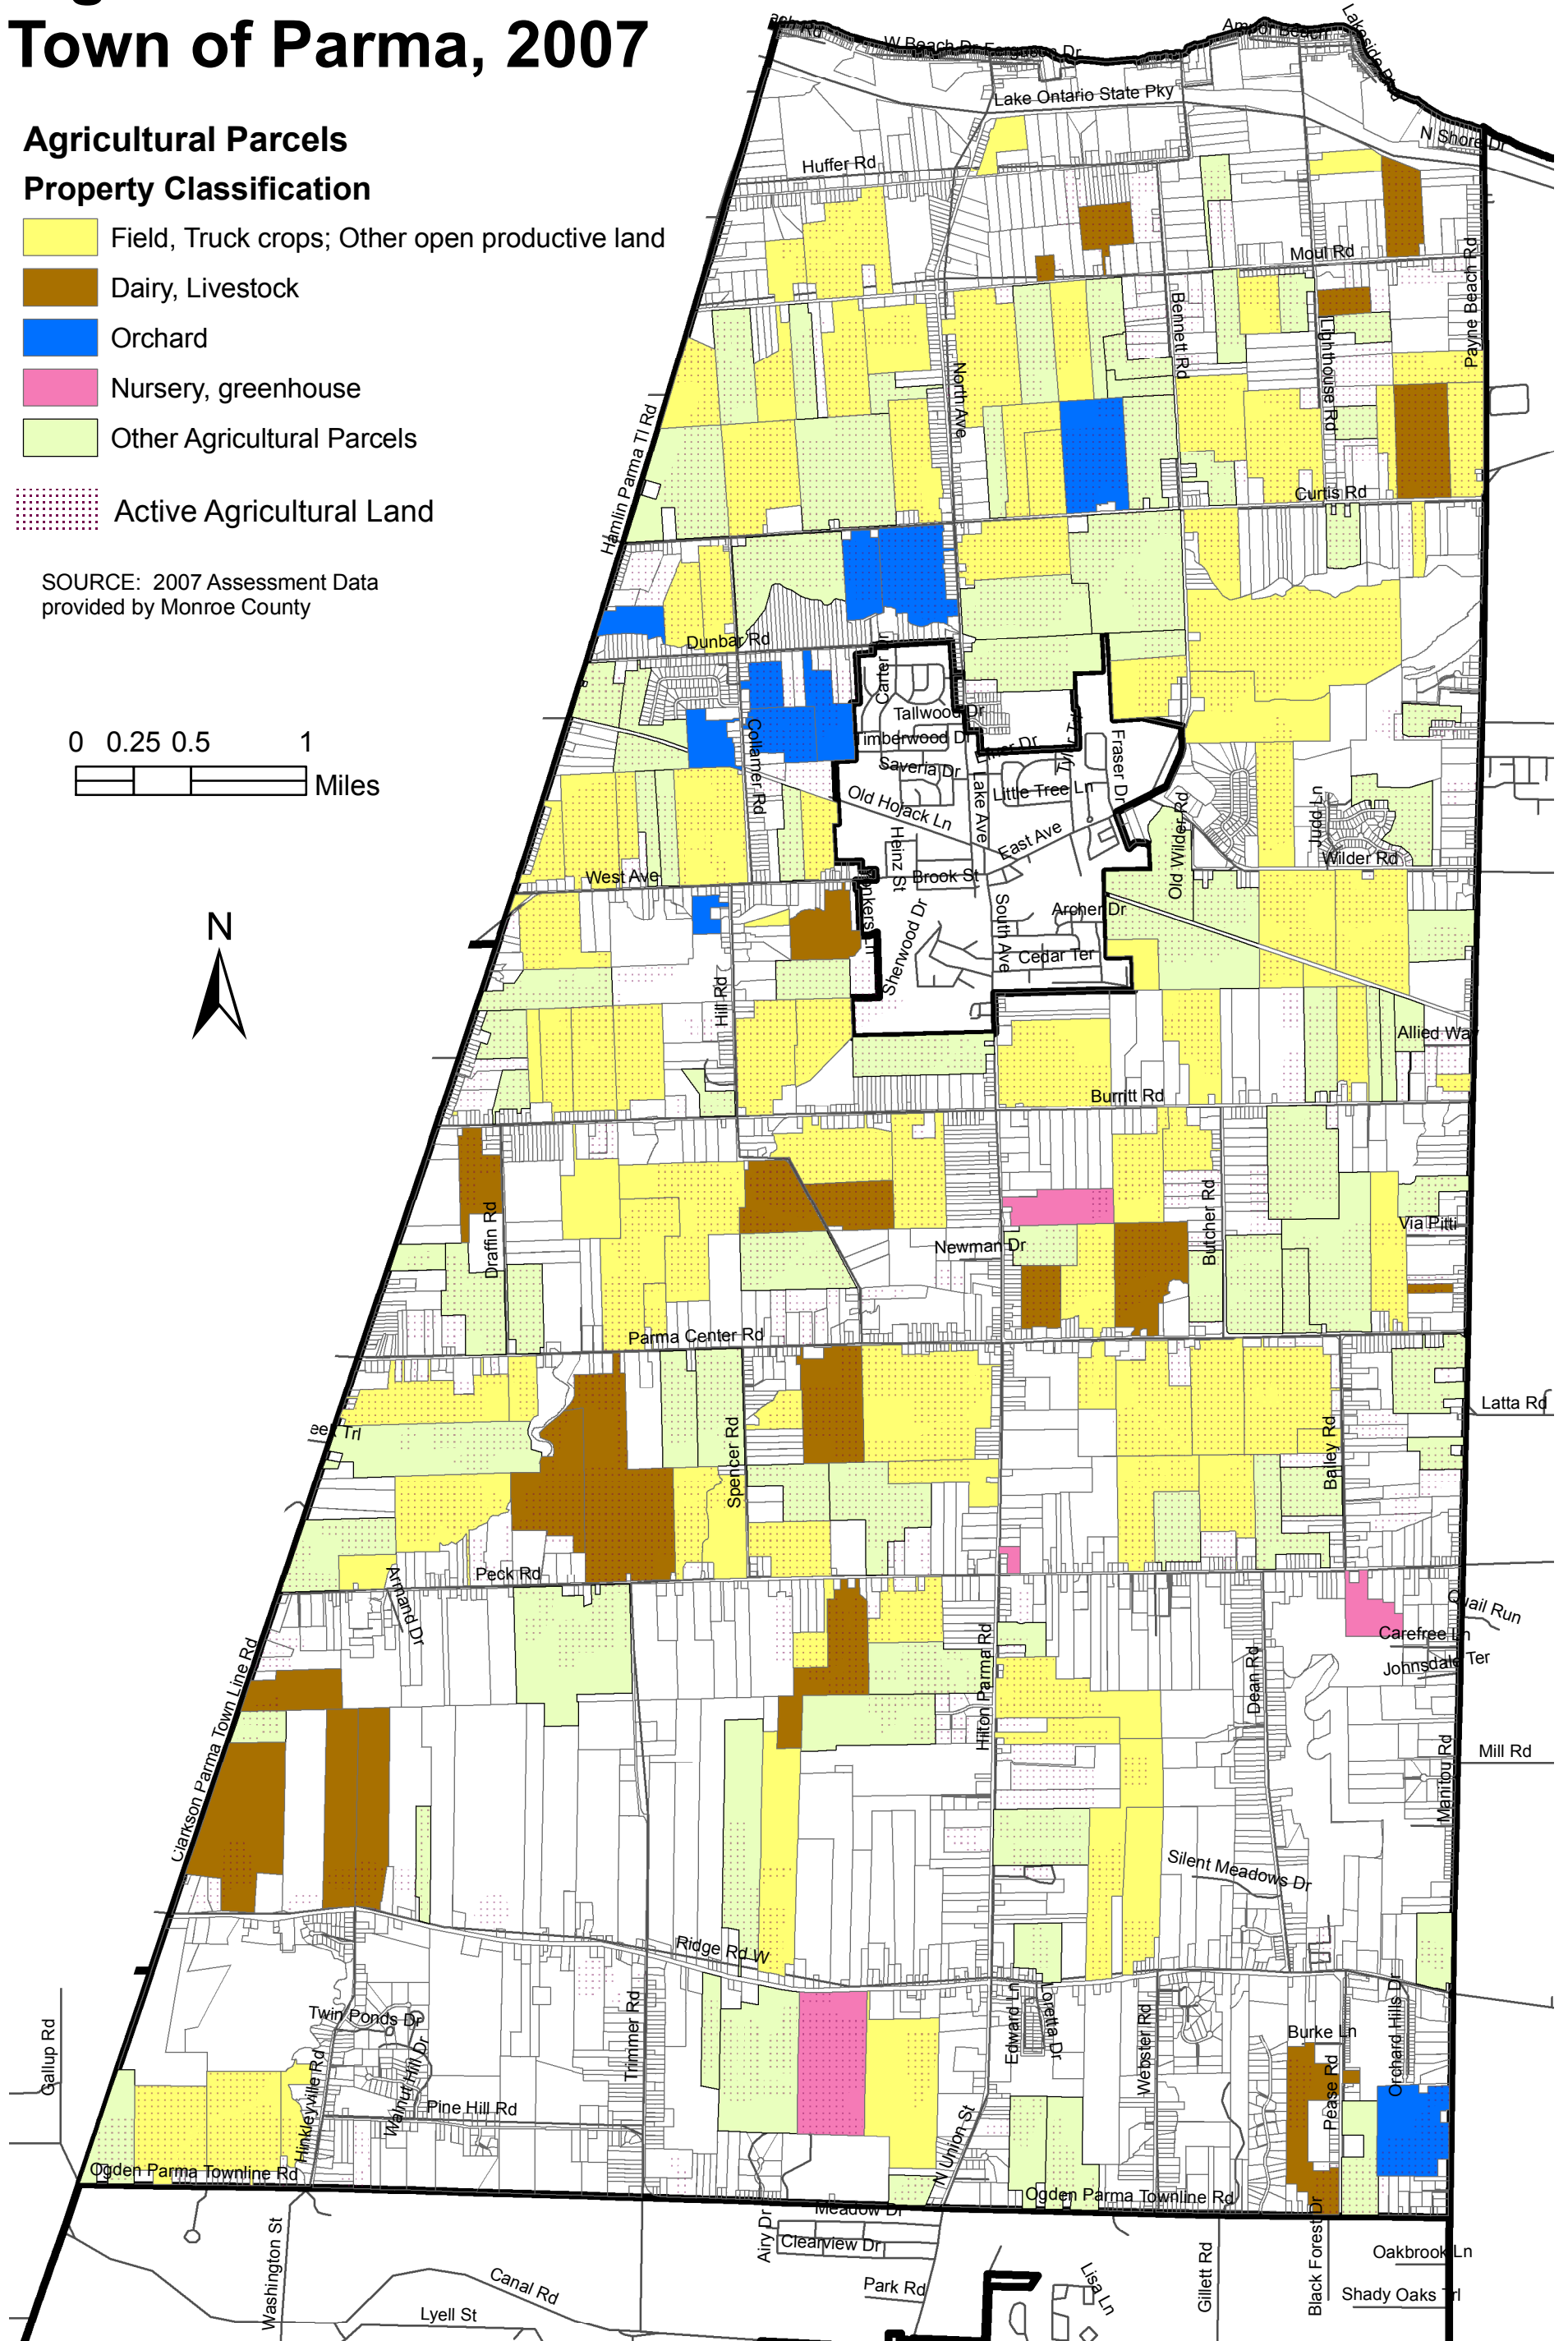

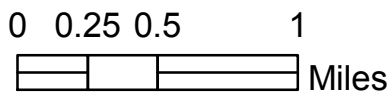

Agricultural Parcels Town of Parma, 2007

Agricultural Parcels

Property Classification

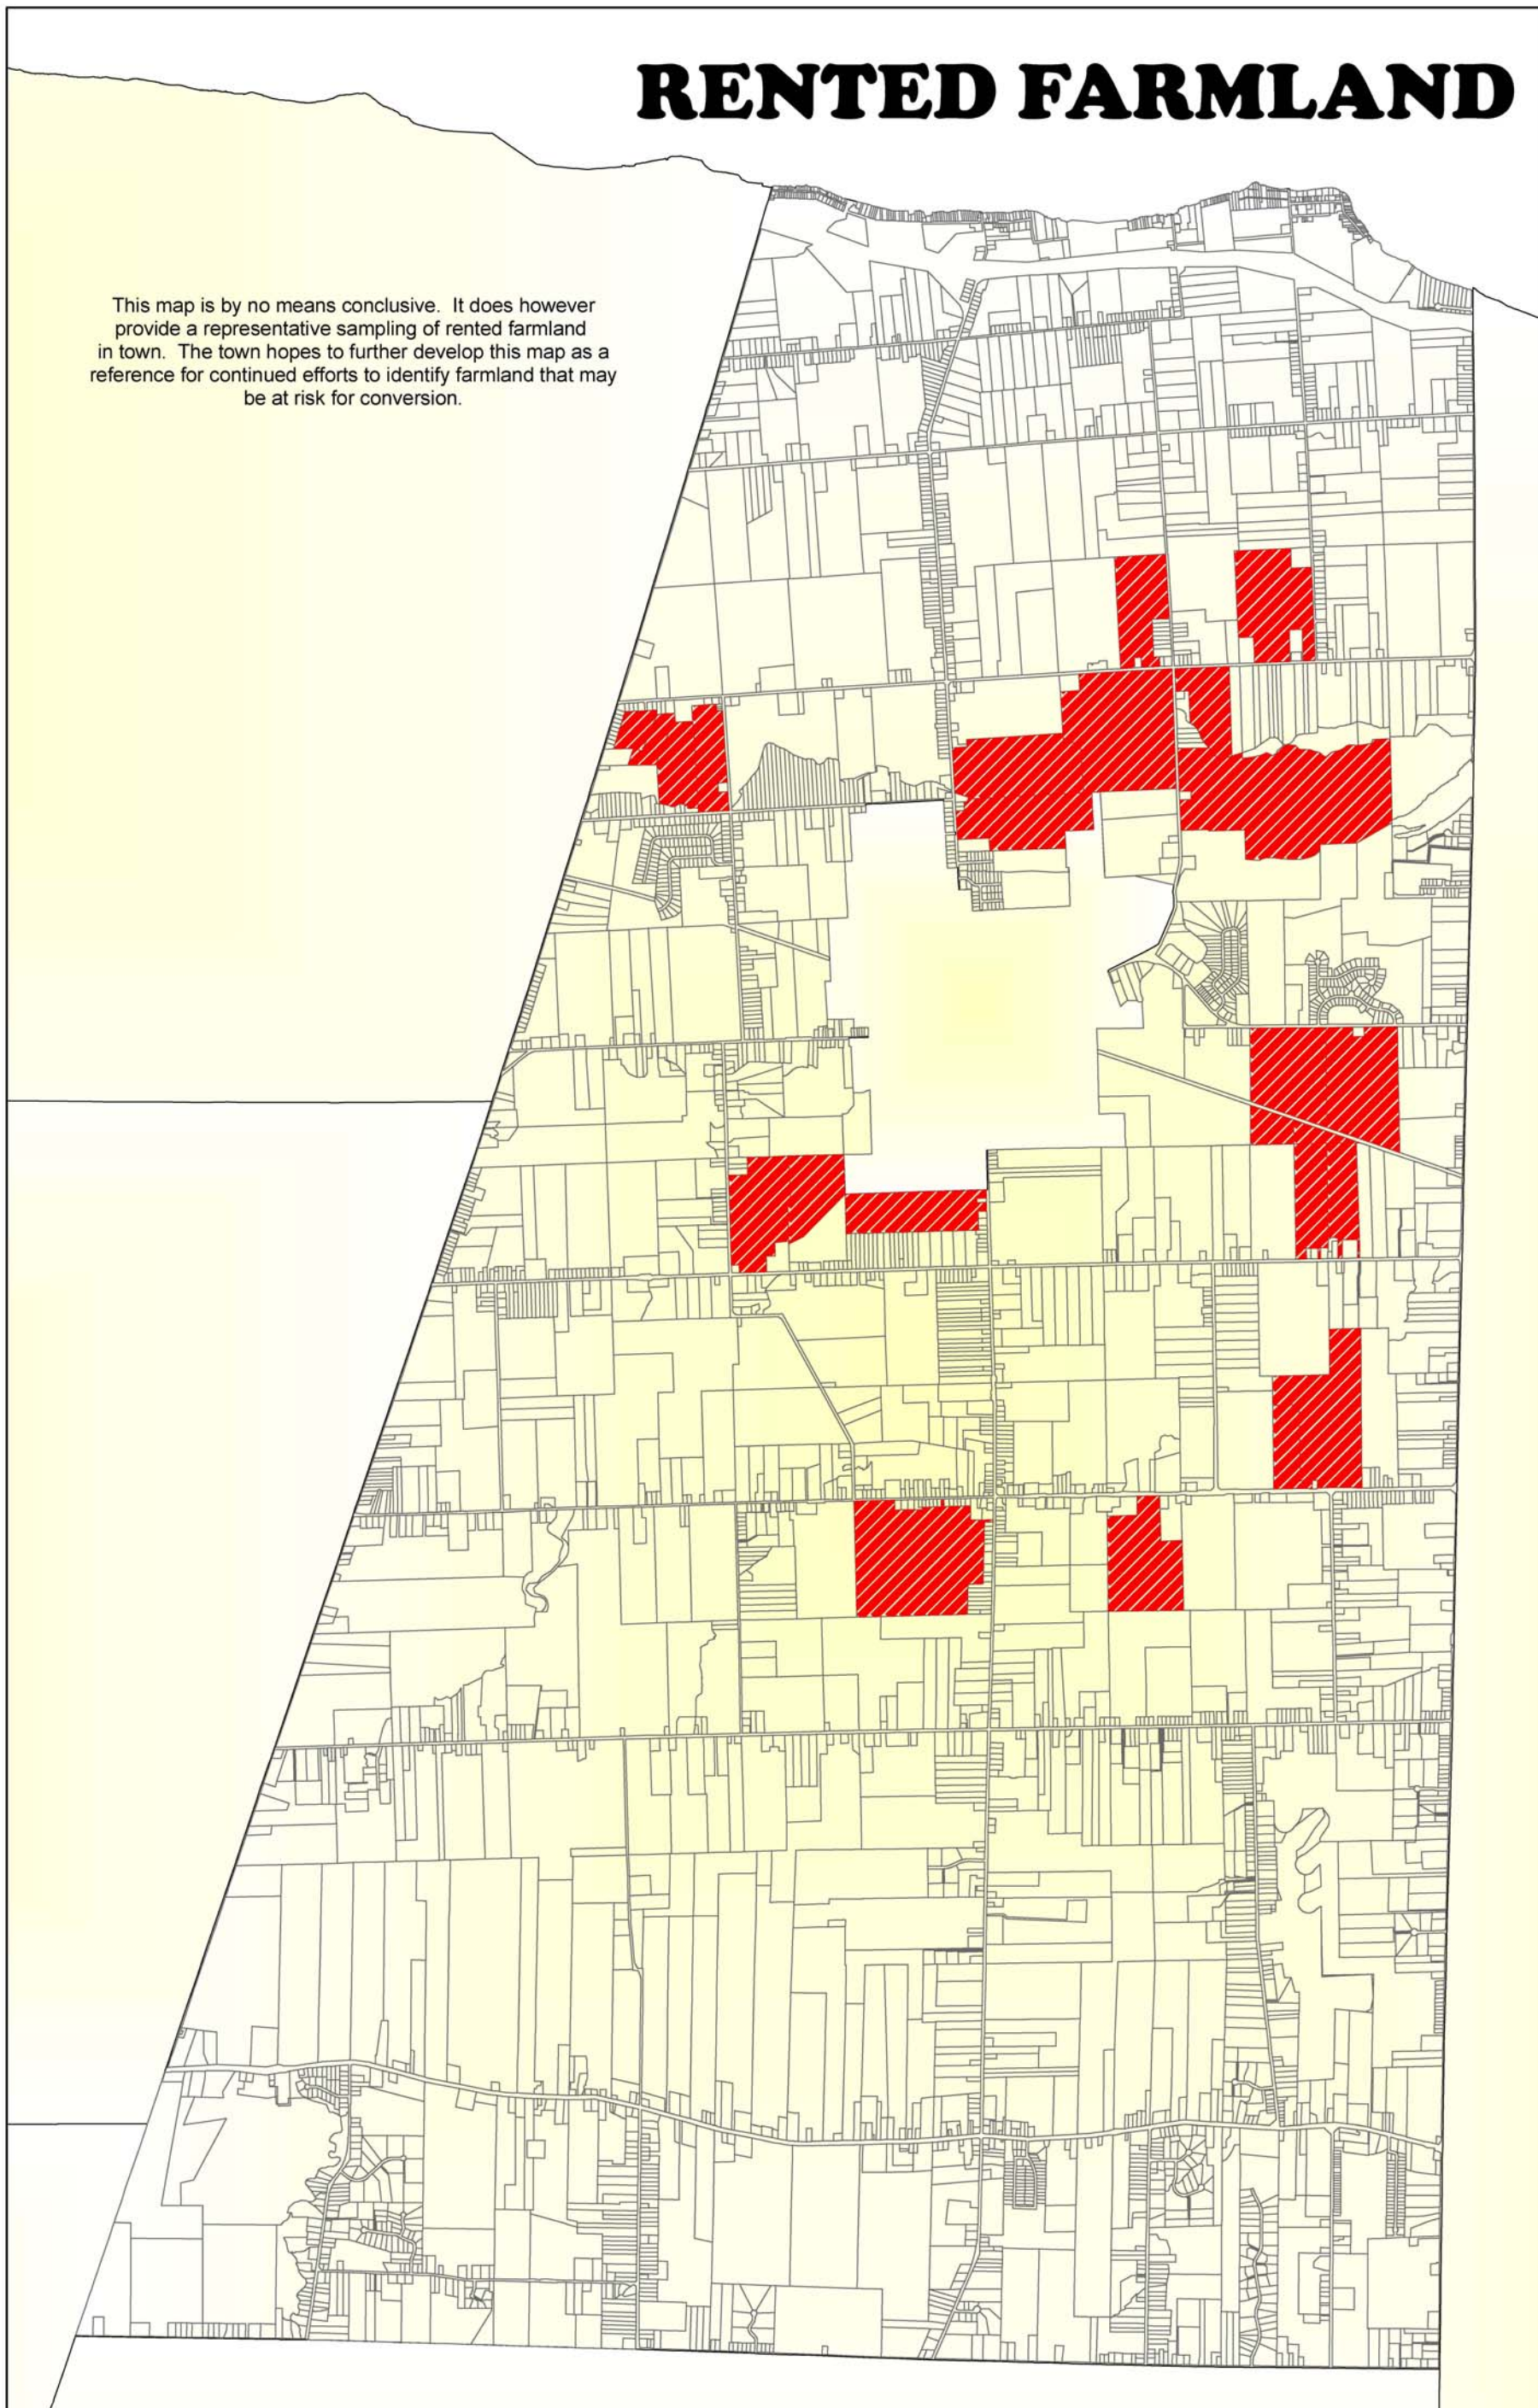

- Field, Truck crops; Other open productive land
- Dairy, Livestock
- Orchard
- Nursery, greenhouse
- Other Agricultural Parcels
- Active Agricultural Land

SOURCE: 2007 Assessment Data provided by Monroe County

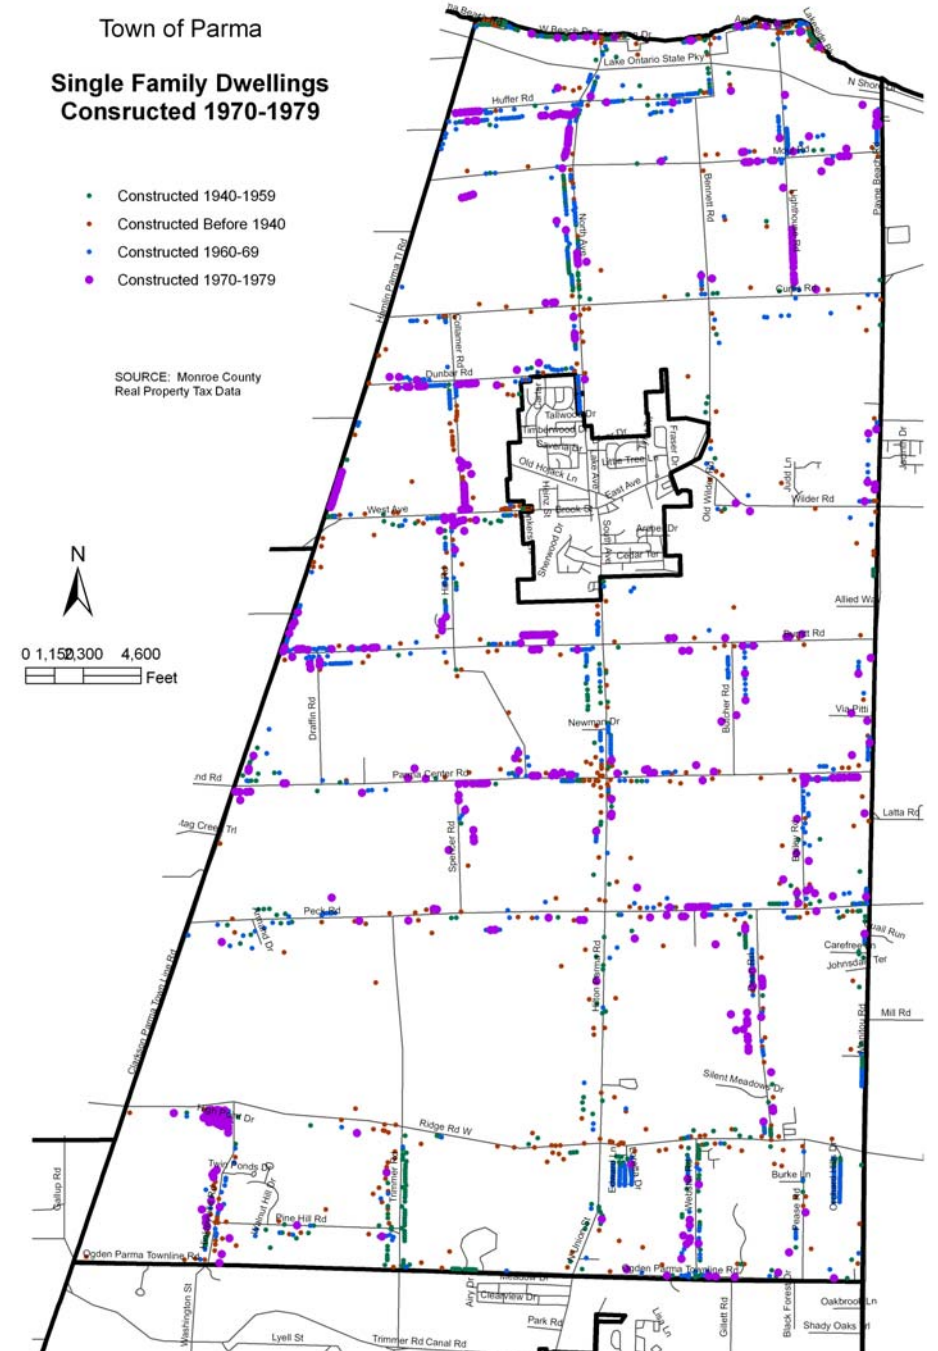

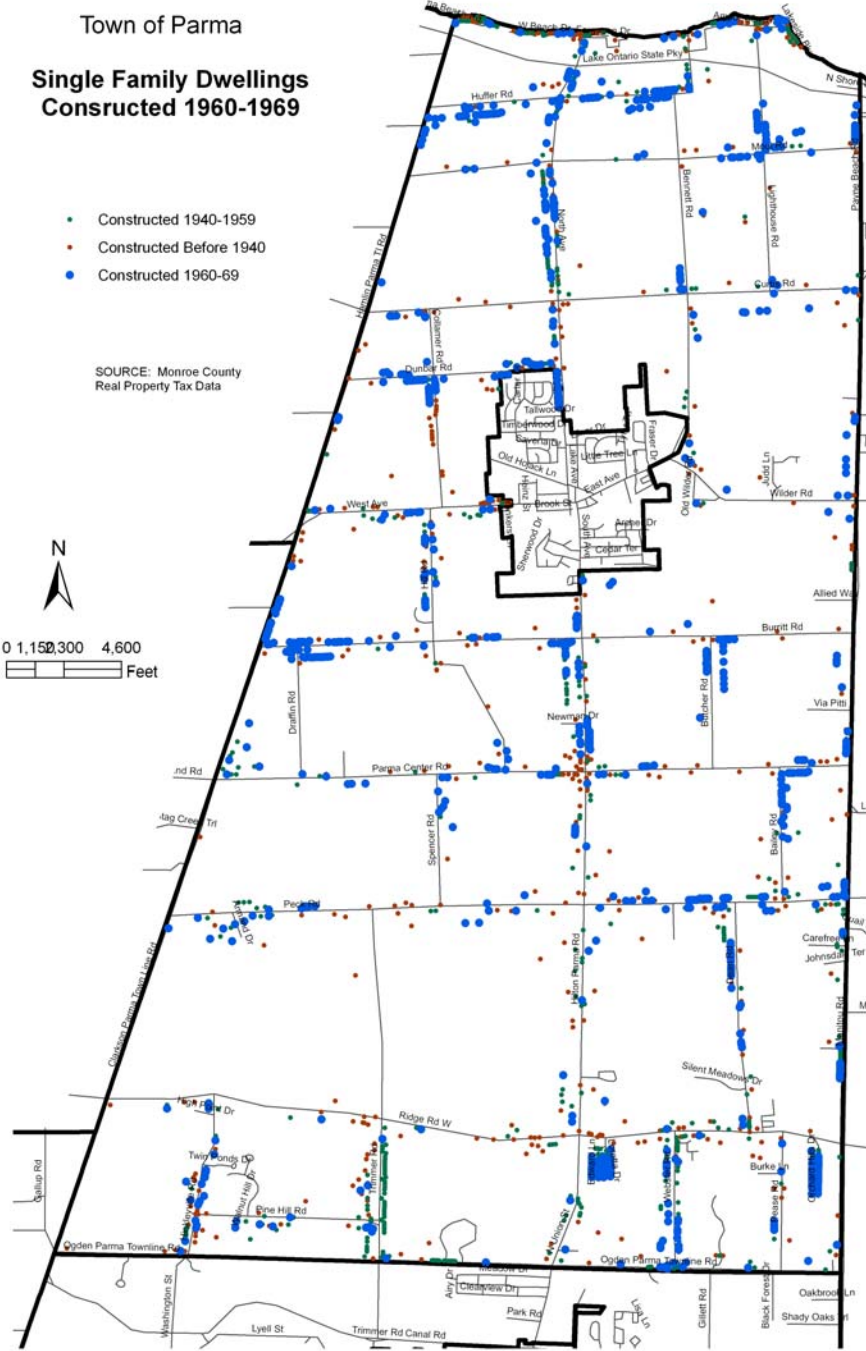

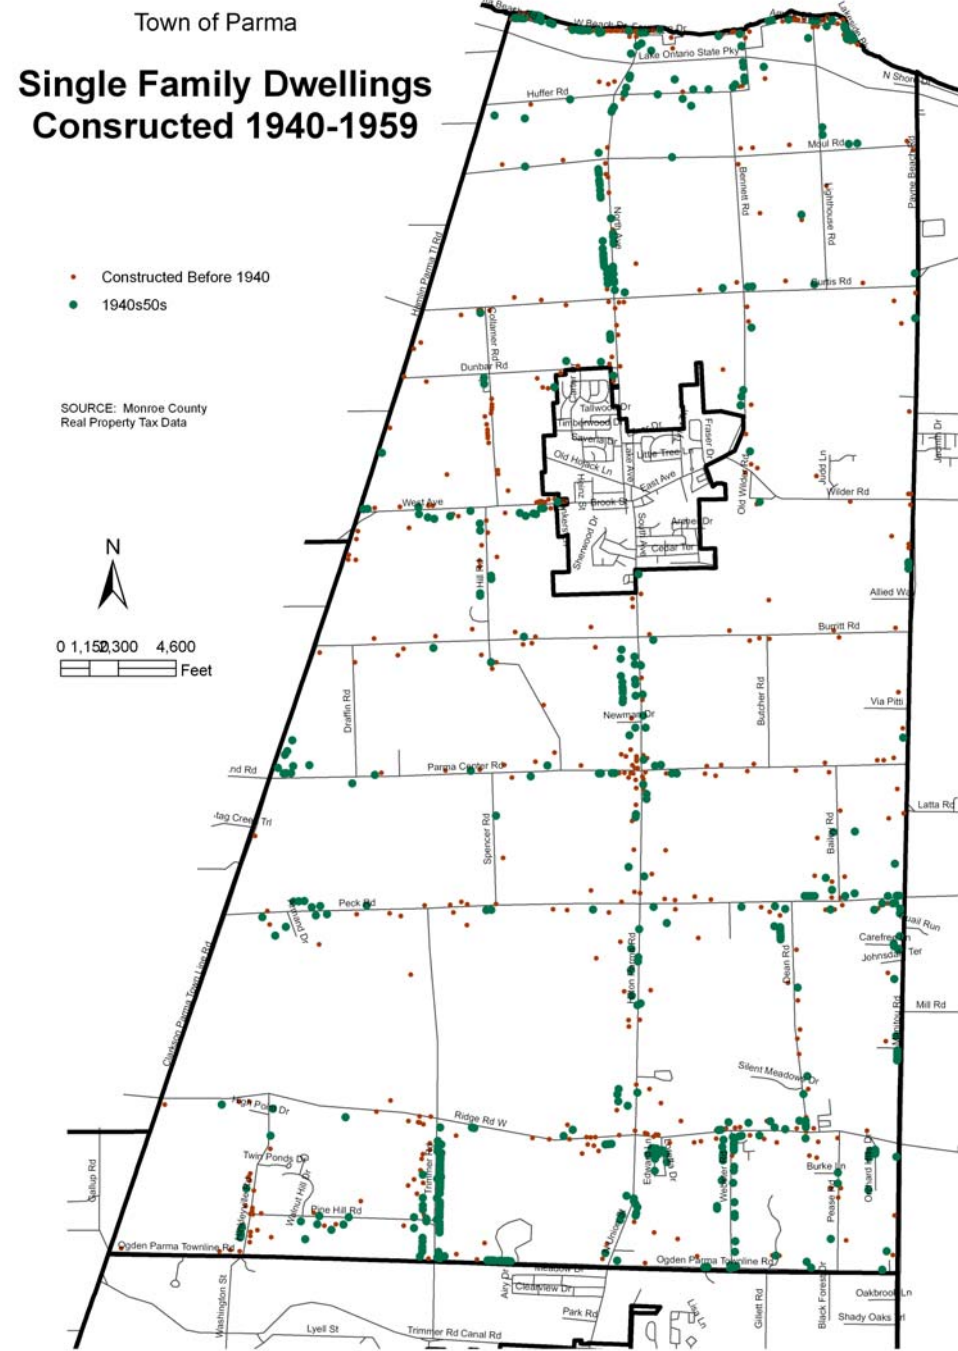

RENTED FARMLAND

This map is by no means conclusive. It does however provide a representative sampling of rented farmland in town. The town hopes to further develop this map as a reference for continued efforts to identify farmland that may be at risk for conversion.

Town of Parma Agricultural & Farmland Protection Plan

Housing Development Trends

Housing Development Trends (cont'd)

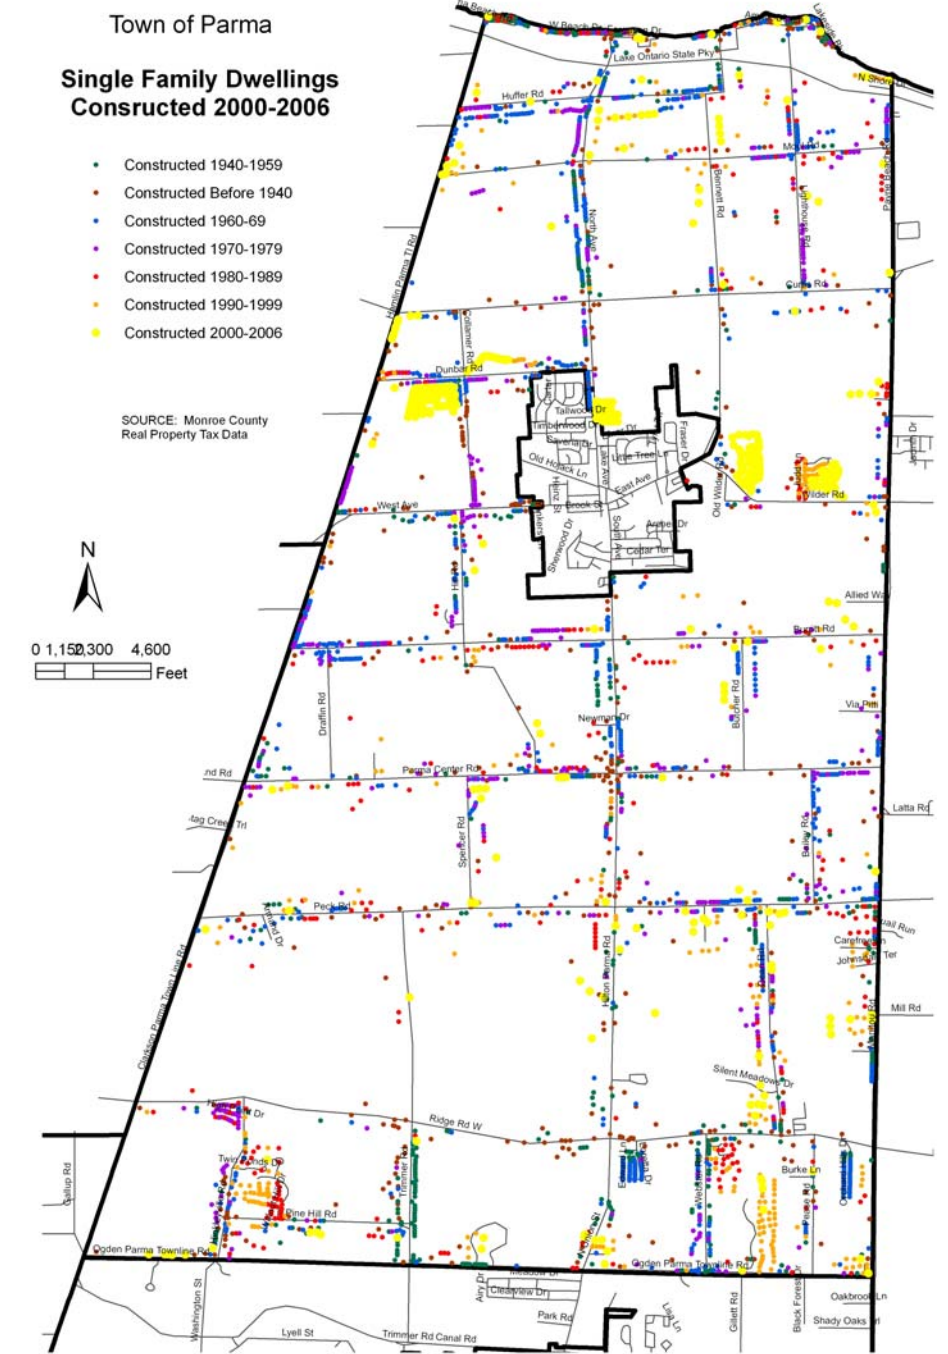

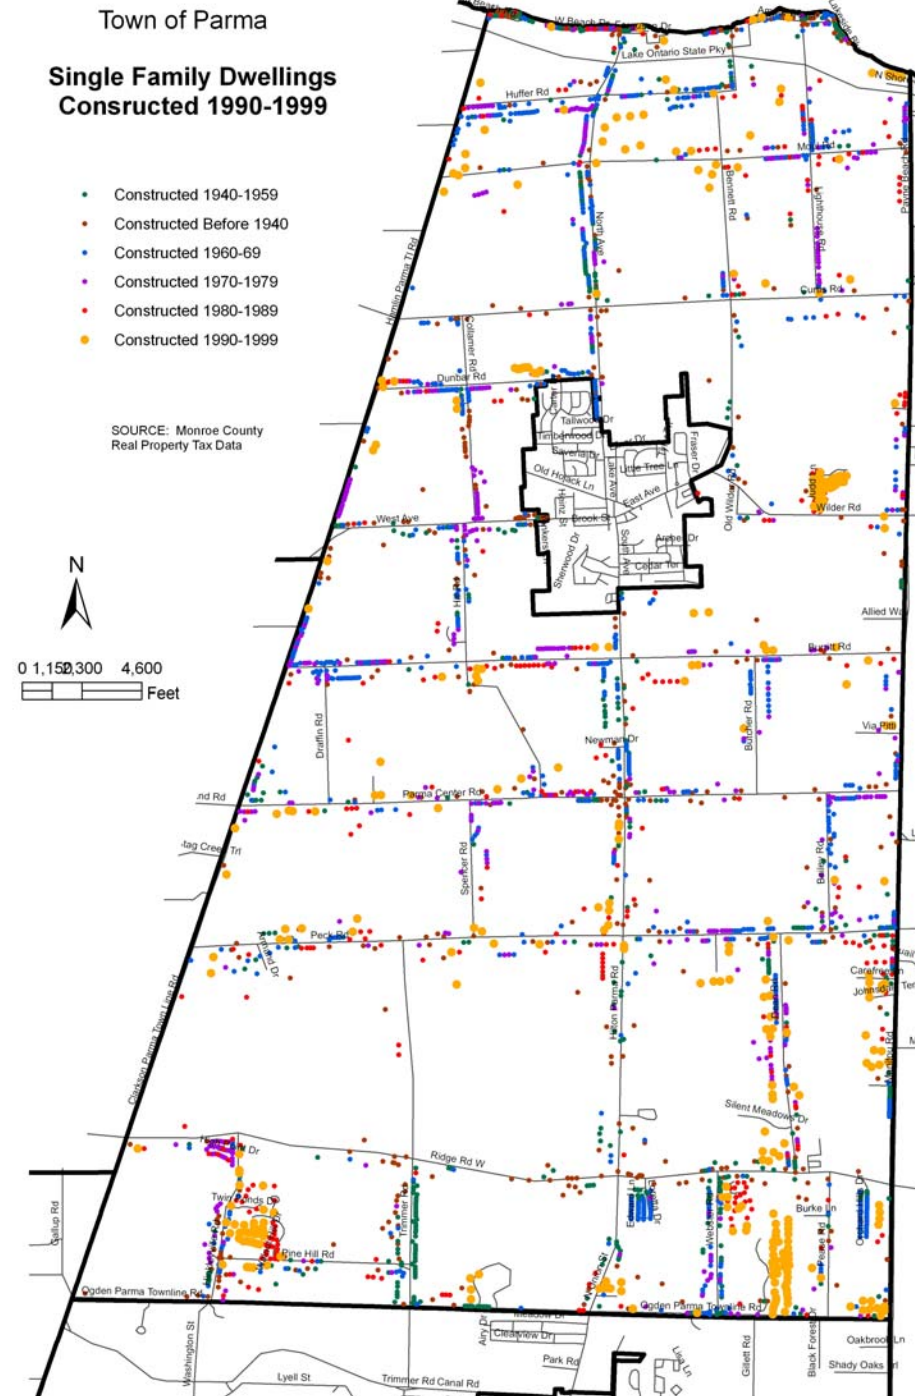

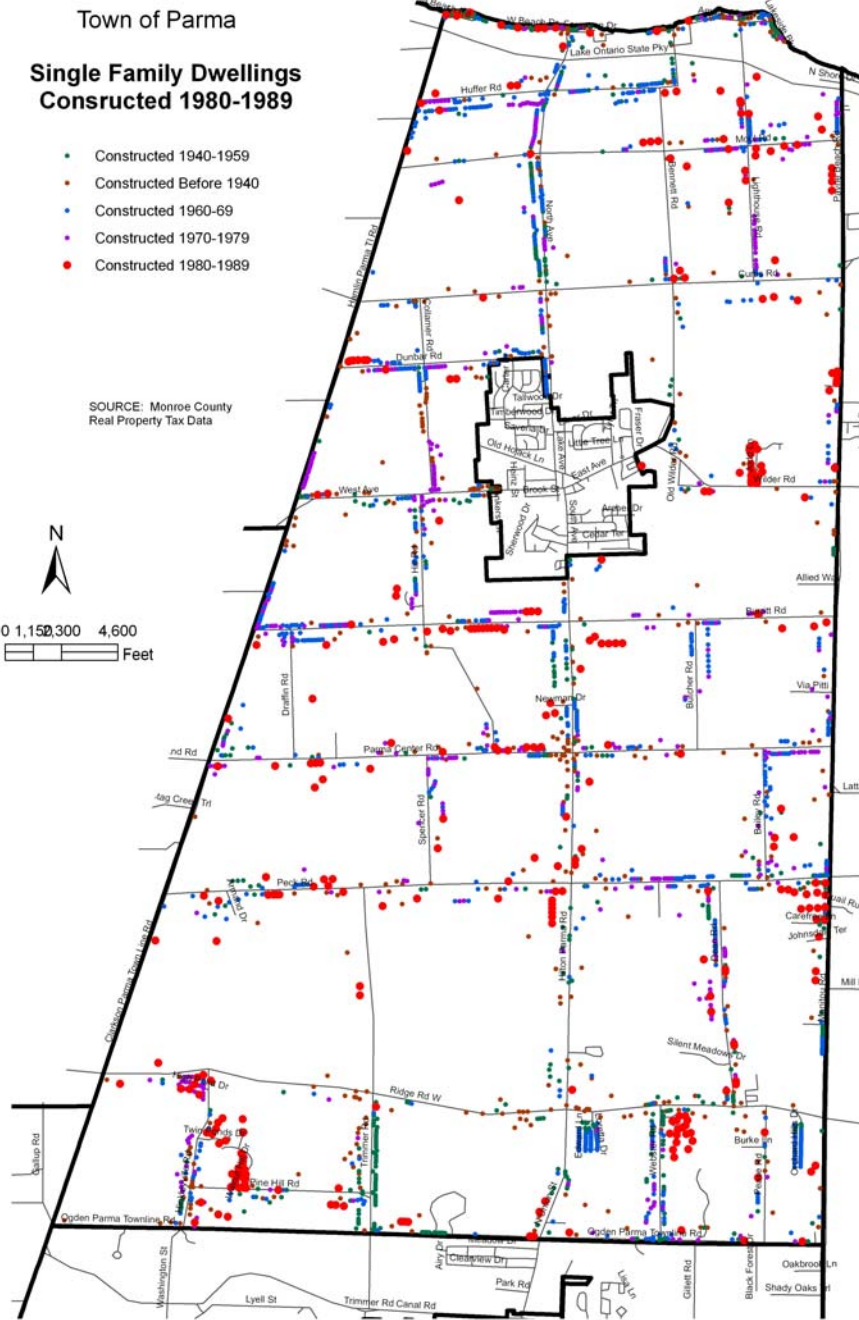

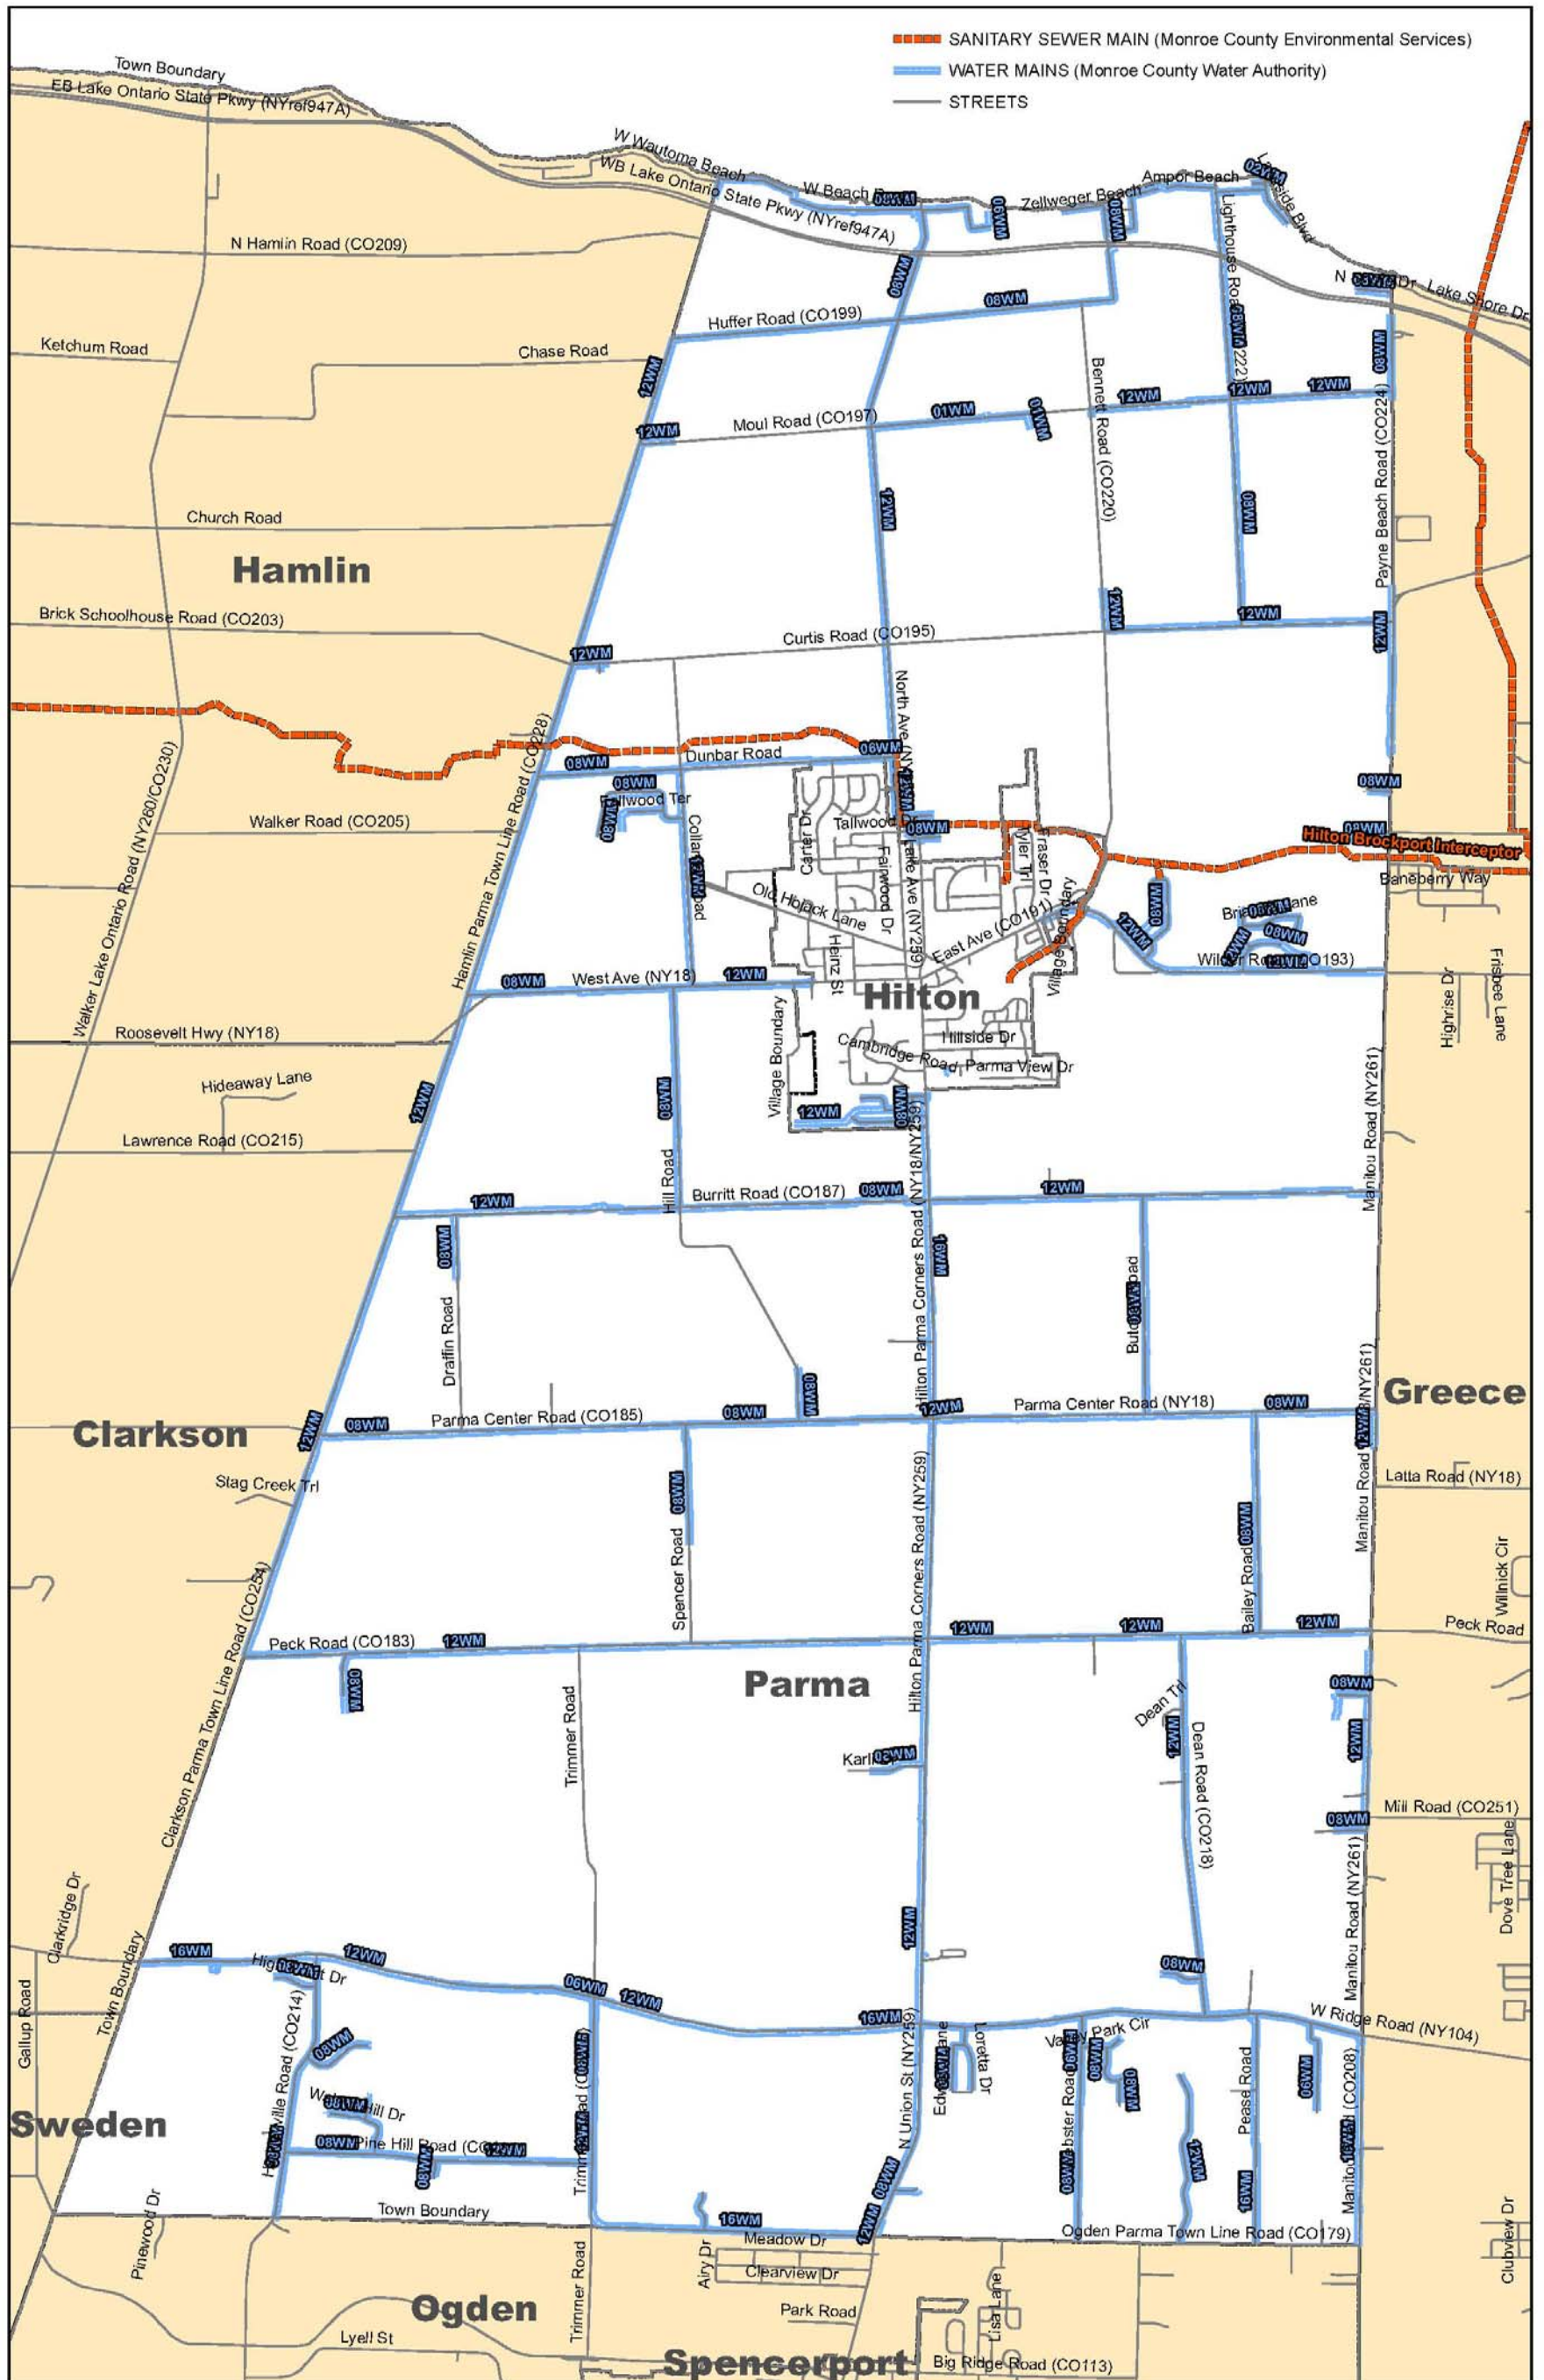

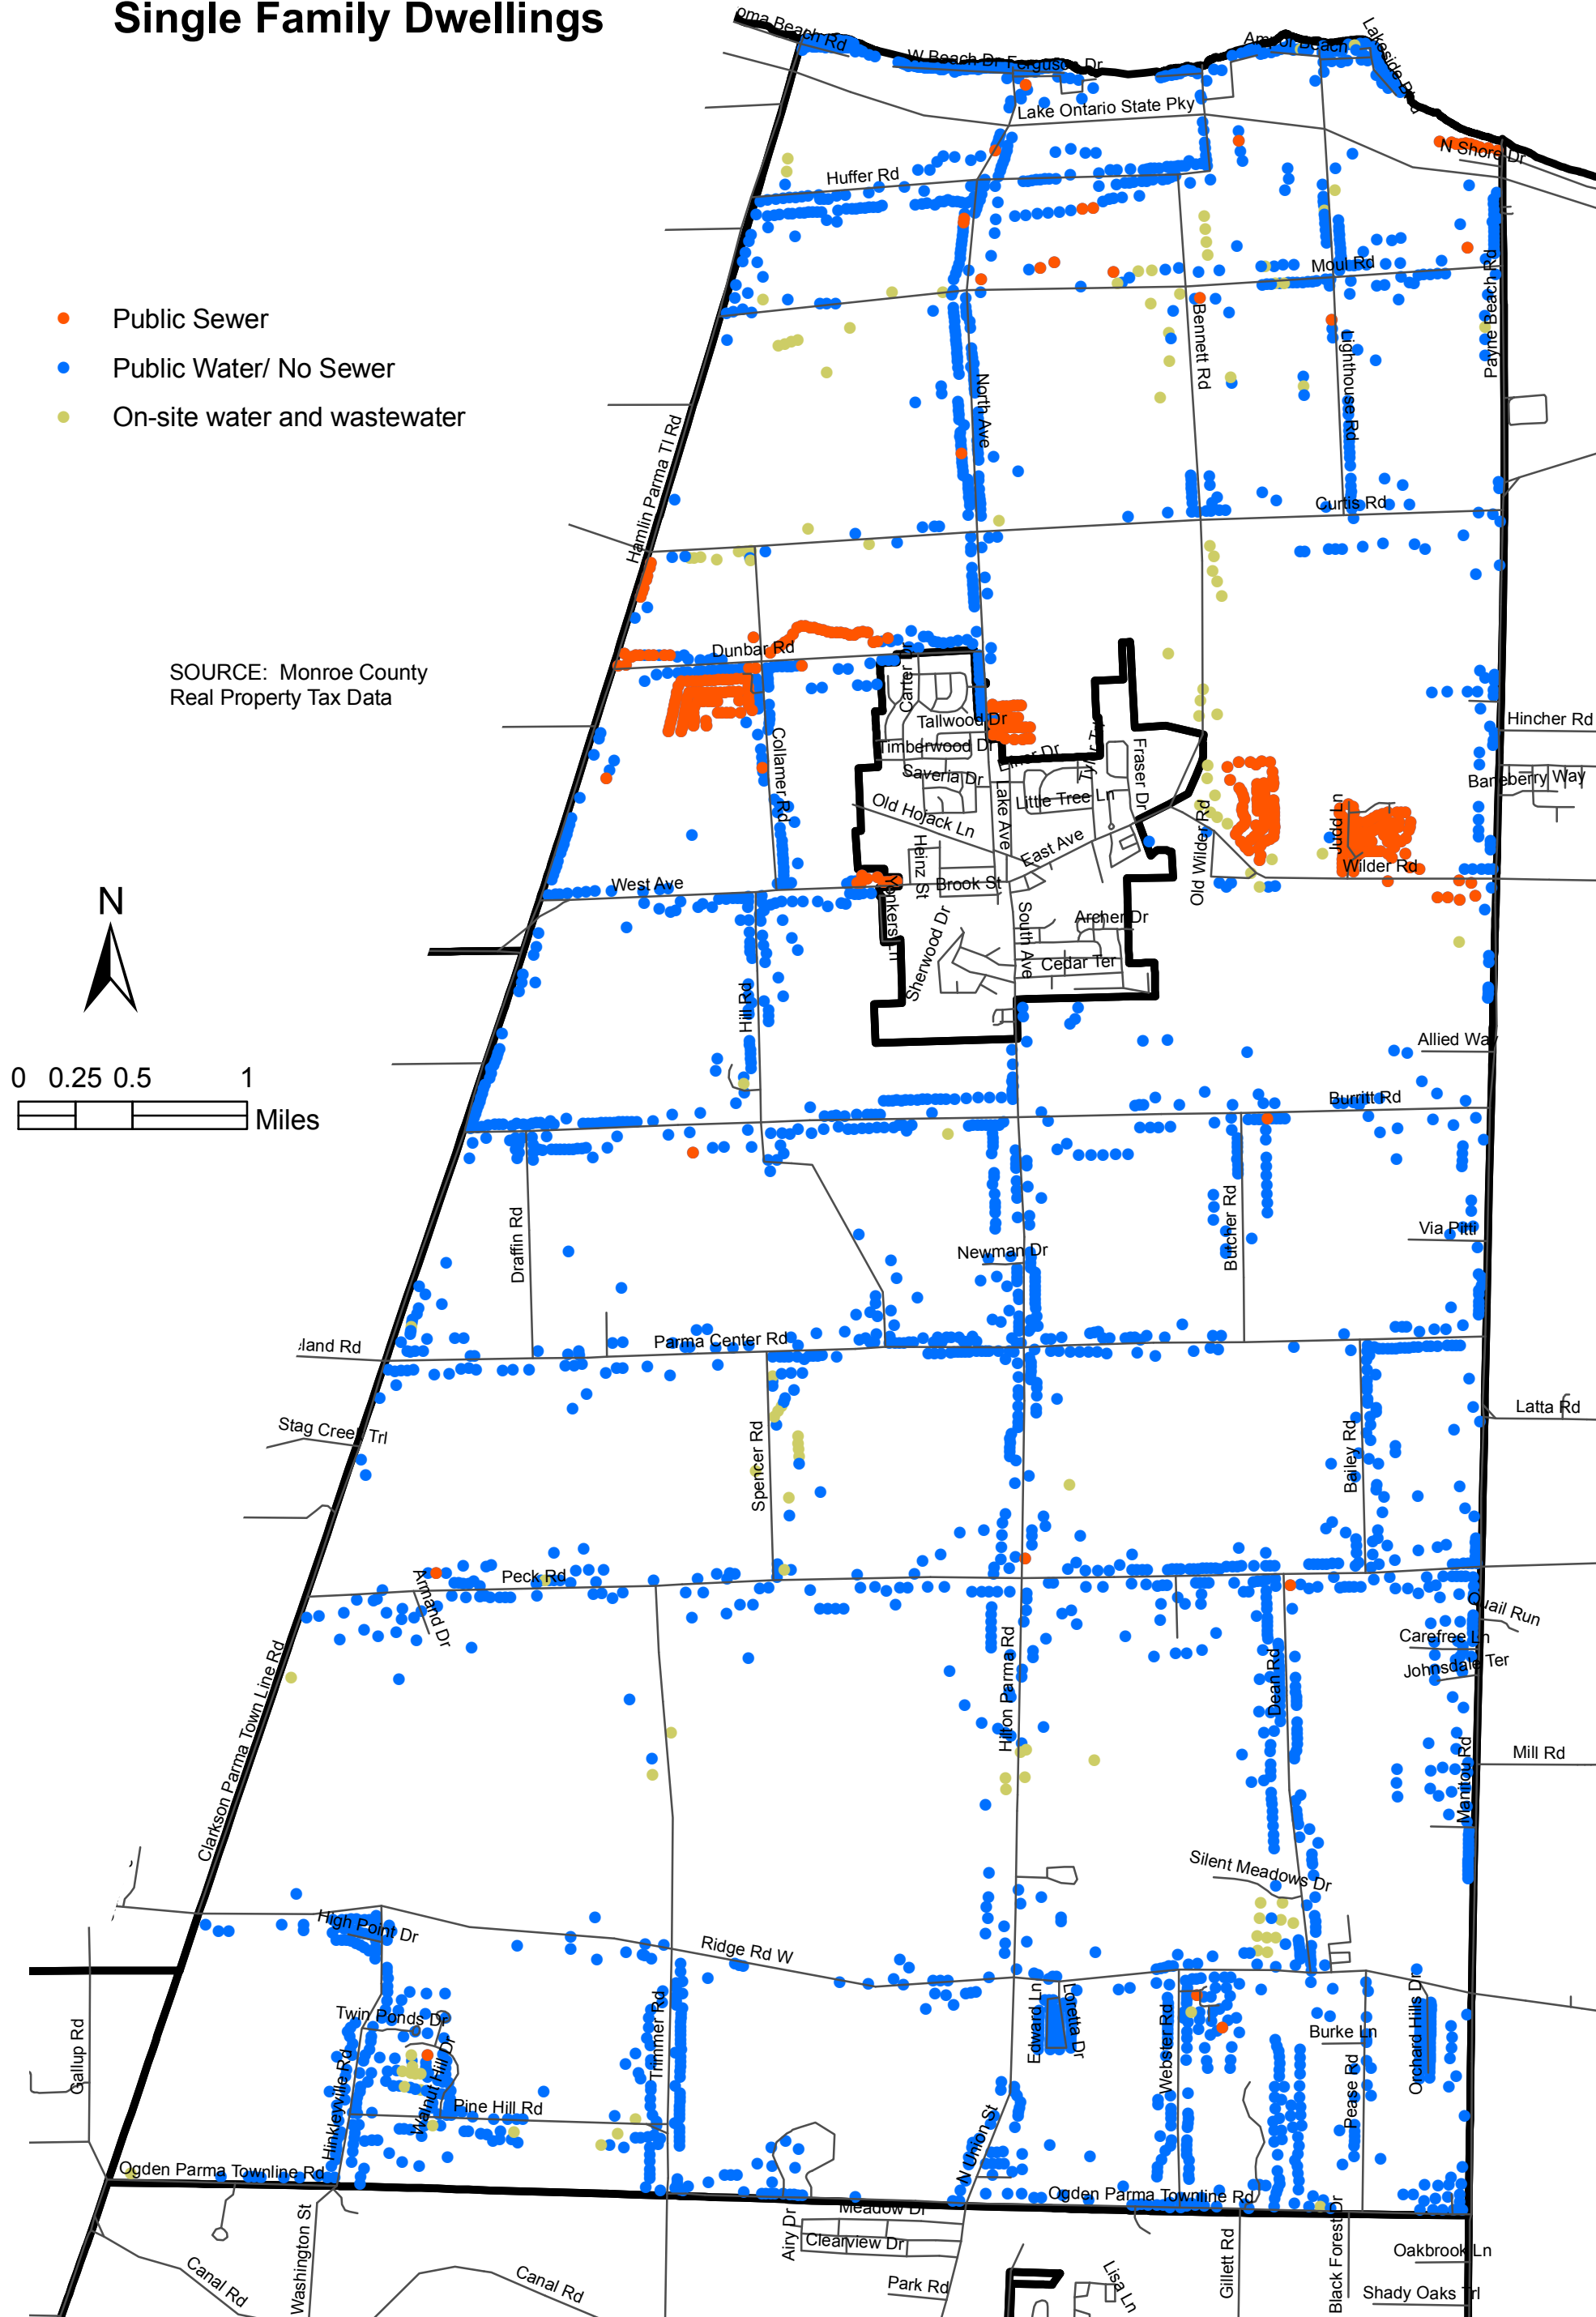

Figure 7

Town of Parma Agricultural & Farmland Protection Plan

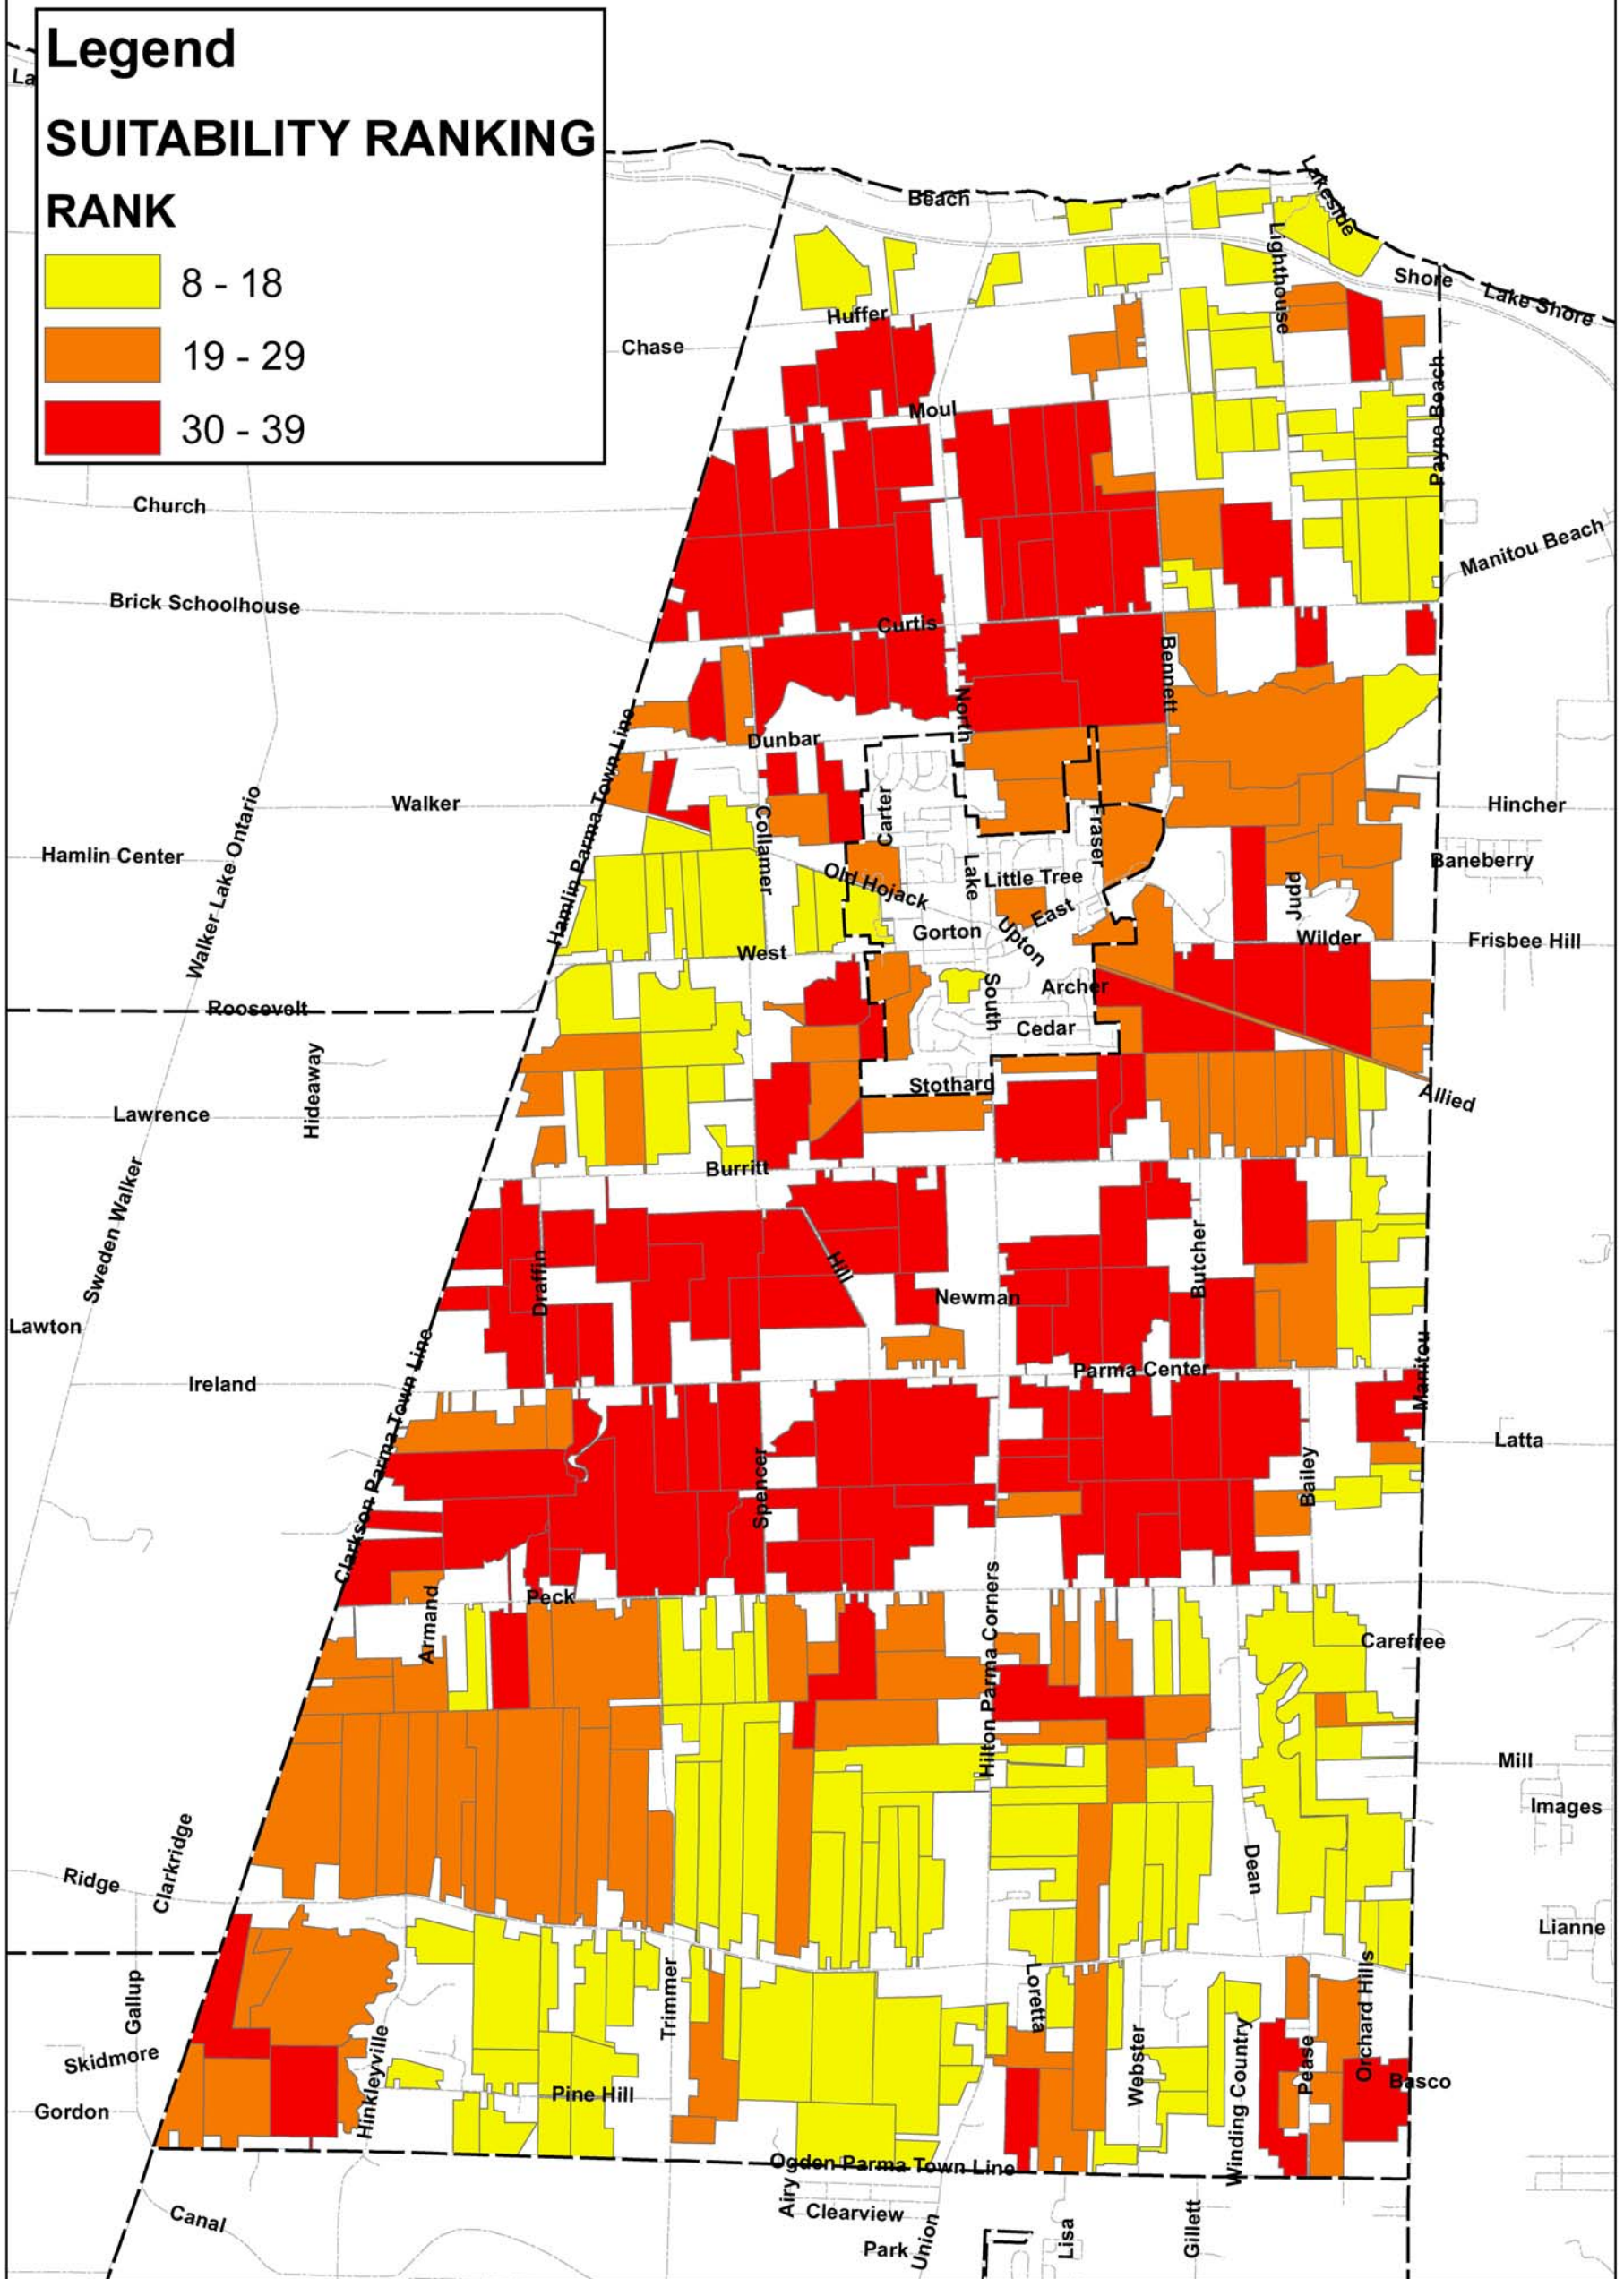

Sewer and Water Lines

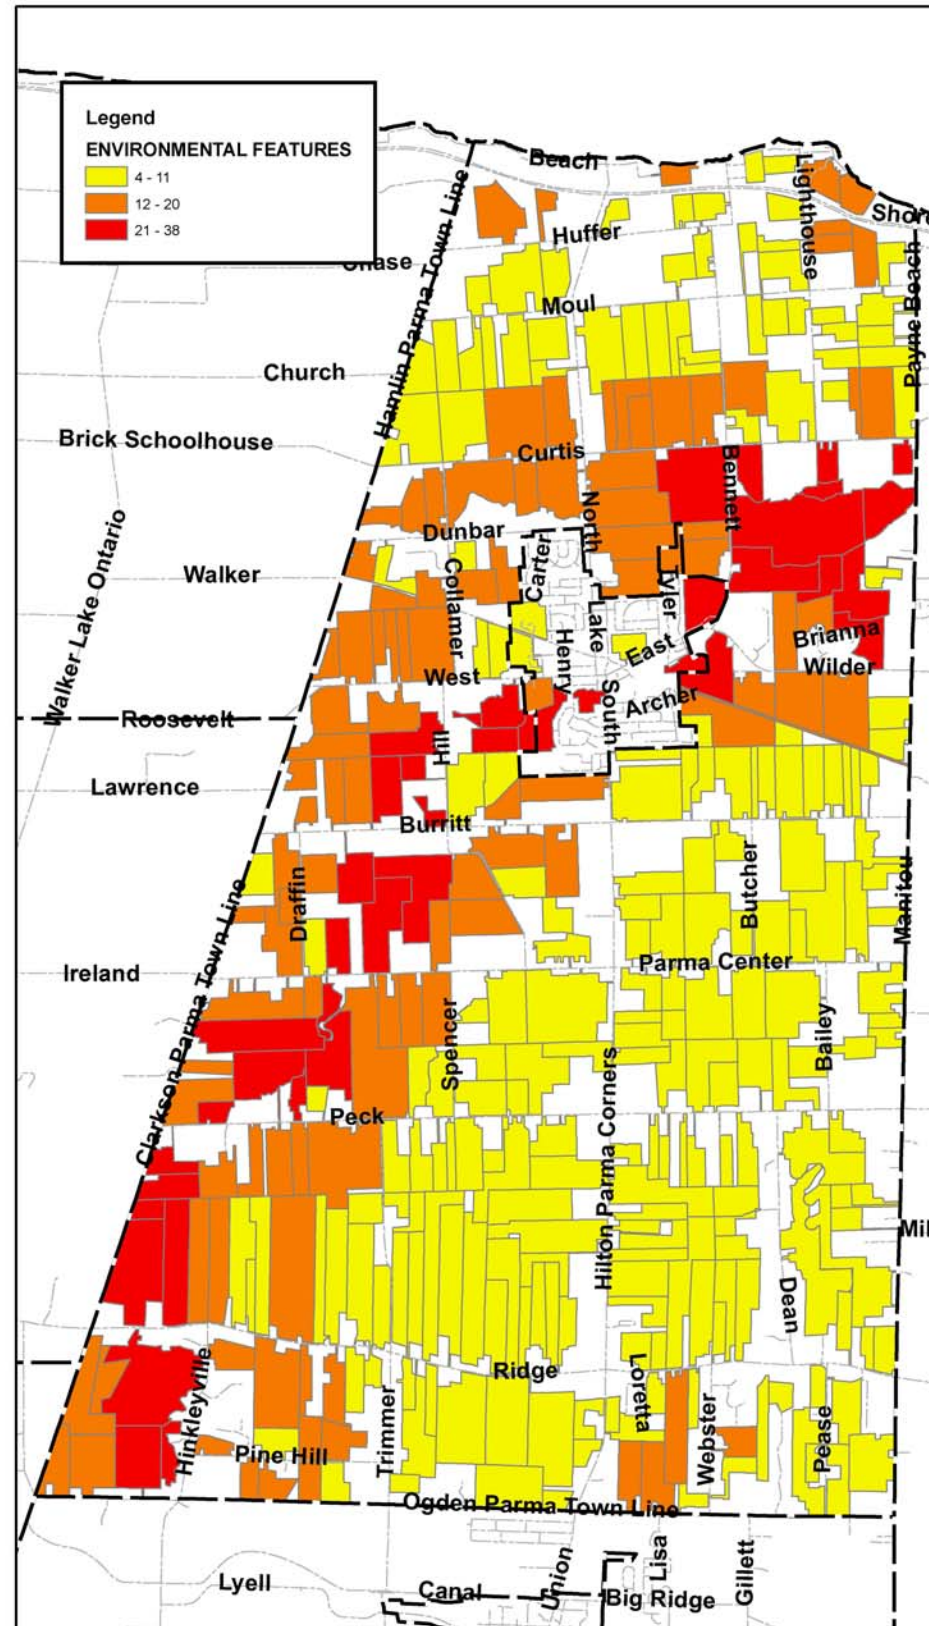

Availability of Public Sewer and Water Single Family Dwellings

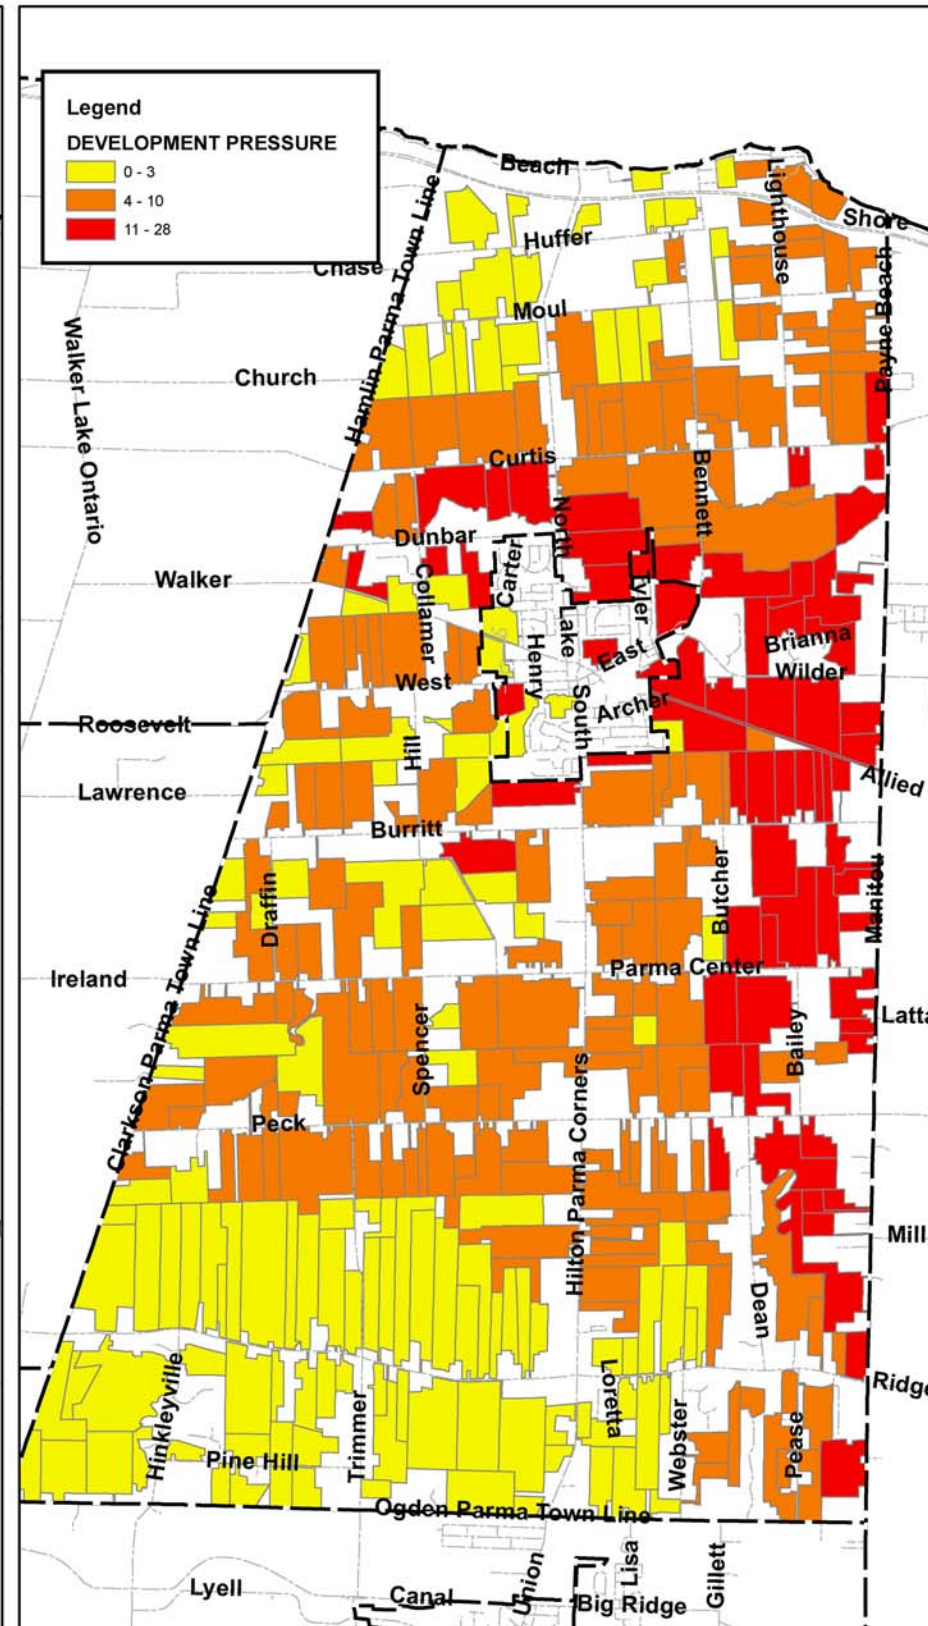

AGRICULTURAL SUITABILITY

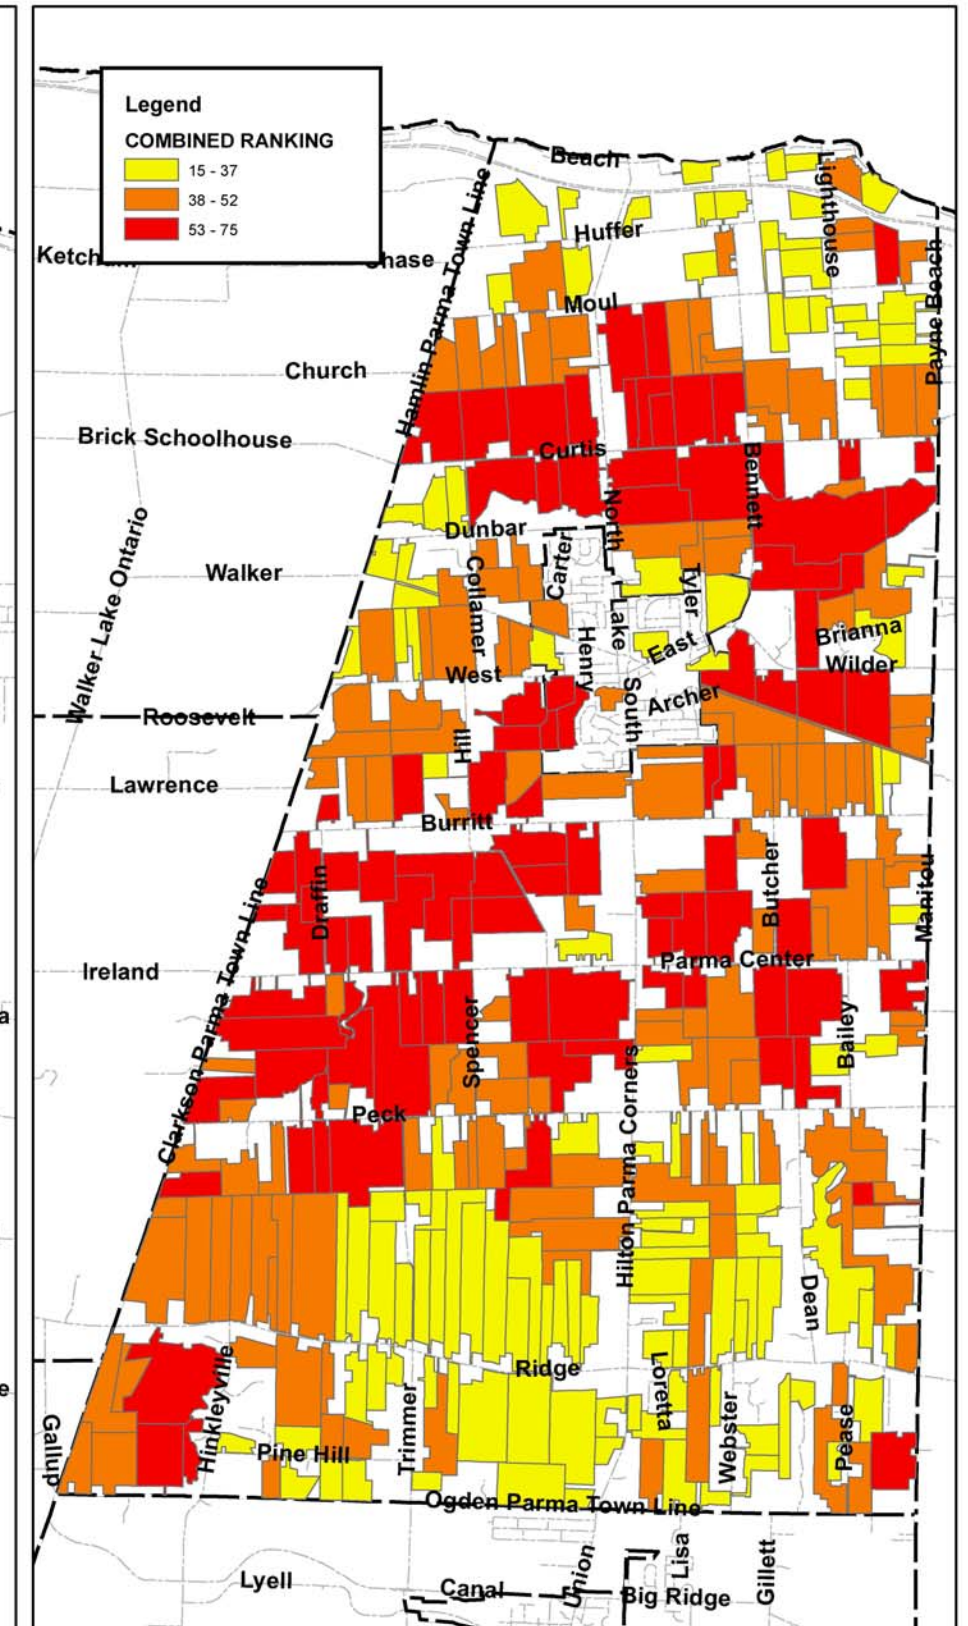

ENVIRONMENTAL FEATURES

DEVELOPMENT PRESSURE

ENVIRONMENTAL FEATURES, DEVELOPMENT PRESSURE, AND AGRICULTURAL SUITABILITY

Priority Preservation Areas and Existing Zoning

- High Agricultural Rating
- High Combo Rating/ Not High Ag Rating
- Zoning Districts

